

Where can I find?

This feature is dedicated to helping readers locate sources for hard-to-find merchandise. If you've seen any of the items in your retail travels (or basement) please call Where Can I Find? (248) 901-2555. Slowly and clearly leave your name, number and message. You should see your input in a few weeks. If you have not seen a response or heard from us, we were unable to locate the item.

WHAT WE FOUND:

Found directions for the ice cream maker, a Power Ranger poster, Evening In Paris perfume and the Fisher Price Alligator Flash-light.

St. Ives mint/aloe facial toner and St. Ives collagen moisture hydrator has been discontinued, as per a St. Ives representative.

Zoya nail polish can be found at Troy Beauty Supply on Rochester Road. The color Corsetta has been discontinued.

For Jerry, Parfumelle, in Fort Worth, Texas, carries Woodhoo cologne. (817) 731-6633. Lisa can find the man's black cell wallet through Handsome Rewards, (909) 943-2023, 19465 Brennan Avenue in Perris, Cal.

WE'RE STILL LOOKING FOR:

Larry is looking for a metal lid for his fountain straw holder. Sharon is looking for M.J. Carroll hose from Winkelman's and Chle black washable leather tennis shoes from Kmart.

Kristin is looking for one, five-piece place setting of Mikasa's Gotham Gold.

Mary wants the game Skittle, a wooden flying top.

Barbara wants a 3D puzzle of the Titanic.

Steve wants the video "A Year Without Santa."

Vivian wants a pattern for a full-size canopy bed.

Sue is looking for a 1984 Wilton sports car cake pan and a 1982 and 1984 Wilton cake decorating pattern book, and a 9-inch round zippered pouch with emergency jumper cables, used to find at Eddie Bauer in 1986.

Marcie is looking for "No more lumps" sifter for gravy, Meijer used to carry.

John wants small model race cars with gasoline motors from the '40s-'50s.

Salada Tea 100-cent regular tea bags (not decaffeinated).

Delores wants Revlon Moon Drops lipstick in Million Dollar Red (it came in a green tube).

Deb is looking for the Luster Rose china pattern by Amerest (lost through grocery stores).

Anne is looking for the book "Temptations" by Otis Williams from 1989 (a large paperback).

Sonya is looking for a 100% men's wool Shaker sweater.

Jeff is looking for Sasaki dinner plates in Metropolis Gray dated 1986 by David Ehring for each.

Dawn is looking for Almay Hypo-Allergenic water cold cream and a lilac/lavender toilet set.

Mary wants a Rubix Cube (with four squares across the top), and a game from Avalon Hills about commercial airlines.

Michele wants a child's toy from six years ago called Picture Peg by Discovery Toys, produced by Ravensburger.

Jan is looking for someone who sells CALORAD and a children's book Fairy Doll by Rumer Godden.

Nancy is looking for the Snowman cookie jar holding a candle from Jacobson's this year.

Eileen is looking for a doll by Ideal from the '60s called "Kliskey."

Mary is looking for Days of the Week underwear for women.

Carol wants the card game O'No 89 by Uno and Santa Bears.

Margaret is looking for Hydro One eye cream and gel by Simplicity from Hudson's.

Kim is looking for the card game Charge It, new/used.

Stu is looking for an AM/FM shower radio with a TV hand.

Angie wants the Mr. Peanut ornament from Planters Peanuts.

Danielle is looking for Almay translucent luxury finish loose powder.

Colleen wants Kathy's Cheese-cake, used to be able to mail order it. They were located on Eight Mile in Livonia and Six Mile in Detroit.

Judy of Canton wants a place that repairs snap-on strollers.

Dottie is looking for Jeri Redding non-aerosol Flash Freeze hair-spray.

Lillian is looking for Counter Parts Slacks in petite.

—Compiled by Sandi Jarackas

NEW YEAR, NEW YOU

Neiman Marcus recently launched the Chantecaille cosmetics collection. Sylvie Chantecaille, (the brains behind Prescriptives for 20 years), focuses on the unexpected: a cosmetics collection that understands your feelings are far more important than the colors on your face. She understands life goes beyond aesthetics and believes that before a woman can enhance herself with makeup, she has to have a true understanding of who she is. Sure she'd like you to try her technologically advanced, beautifully shaded products, but her goal is to share her experiences — as an industry expert, a baby boomer, a spiritually connected individual, a wife and a mother of three children.

The Chantecaille collection uses a technology that allows the products to mesh with the skin. The powder and pigments are coated with vegetable protein, so only real, natural substances touch the face.

"I want everything simple," says Chantecaille. "I want to put on my makeup in two seconds and head out the door."

Prices range from $20-$47.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

The competitions for the 1999 festival will be sanctioned by the prestigious American Culinary Federation. Over $10,000 in prize monies and scholarships will be awarded.

Other activities of special interest include the Farmer Jack Fantasyland presented in conjunction with First of America Bank and Media One. This year's theme is "Insects Inside," and will feature displays of wild and crazy bugs.

Also, see the Bud Light 24 Light Show, the Ford Ice Carving Competitions and the Community Federal Credit Union

Student Carving Competitions. The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P. For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore also won a $100 Wonderland Mall shopping spree.

With her gift certificate, Moore bought a University of Michigan Barbie doll and donated it to the AAA Crisis Center in Livonia, where she works.

Cathy Young, assistant marketing director for Wonderland Mall, hands Sherry Moore of Livonia her VIS prizes.

CELEBRATE The Grand Ballroom of the Kingsley Inn and Suites comes alive on New Year's Eve with a gala dinner and dance celebration featuring exquisite cuisine from the Unique Restaurant Corporation and the big brass sound of the Bugs Beddo Band. The bash kicks off at 8 p.m. The URC menu includes wild mushroom bique, fire-roasted tenderloin and Salmon Wellington. Chocolate passion provides the perfect ending.

After a night of partying and a complimentary champagne toast, revelers can retreat to luxurious rooms at the Kingsley to enjoy a good night's sleep and re-energize with a continental breakfast served until noon.

The cost is $289 per couple, including gala with drink tickets, hotel room, breakfast, tax and gratuity. A gala package without a guest room also can be purchased for $199, including tax and gratuity.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

The competitions for the 1999 festival will be sanctioned by the prestigious American Culinary Federation. Over $10,000 in prize monies and scholarships will be awarded.

Other activities of special interest include the Farmer Jack Fantasyland presented in conjunction with First of America Bank and Media One. This year's theme is "Insects Inside," and will feature displays of wild and crazy bugs.

Also, see the Bud Light 24 Light Show, the Ford Ice Carving Competitions and the Community Federal Credit Union

Student Carving Competitions. The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P. For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore also won a $100 Wonderland Mall shopping spree.

With her gift certificate, Moore bought a University of Michigan Barbie doll and donated it to the AAA Crisis Center in Livonia, where she works.

Cathy Young, assistant marketing director for Wonderland Mall, hands Sherry Moore of Livonia her VIS prizes.

CELEBRATE The Grand Ballroom of the Kingsley Inn and Suites comes alive on New Year's Eve with a gala dinner and dance celebration featuring exquisite cuisine from the Unique Restaurant Corporation and the big brass sound of the Bugs Beddo Band. The bash kicks off at 8 p.m. The URC menu includes wild mushroom bique, fire-roasted tenderloin and Salmon Wellington. Chocolate passion provides the perfect ending.

After a night of partying and a complimentary champagne toast, revelers can retreat to luxurious rooms at the Kingsley to enjoy a good night's sleep and re-energize with a continental breakfast served until noon.

The cost is $289 per couple, including gala with drink tickets, hotel room, breakfast, tax and gratuity. A gala package without a guest room also can be purchased for $199, including tax and gratuity.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

RETAIL DETAILS

NEUMAN MARCUS recently launched the Chantecaille cosmetics collection. Sylvie Chantecaille, (the brains behind Prescriptives for 20 years), focuses on the unexpected: a cosmetics collection that understands your feelings are far more important than the colors on your face. She understands life goes beyond aesthetics and believes that before a woman can enhance herself with makeup, she has to have a true understanding of who she is. Sure she'd like you to try her technologically advanced, beautifully shaded products, but her goal is to share her experiences — as an industry expert, a baby boomer, a spiritually connected individual, a wife and a mother of three children.

The Chantecaille collection uses a technology that allows the products to mesh with the skin. The powder and pigments are coated with vegetable protein, so only real, natural substances touch the face.

"I want everything simple," says Chantecaille. "I want to put on my makeup in two seconds and head out the door."

Prices range from $20-$47.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

The competitions for the 1999 festival will be sanctioned by the prestigious American Culinary Federation. Over $10,000 in prize monies and scholarships will be awarded.

Other activities of special interest include the Farmer Jack Fantasyland presented in conjunction with First of America Bank and Media One. This year's theme is "Insects Inside," and will feature displays of wild and crazy bugs.

Also, see the Bud Light 24 Light Show, the Ford Ice Carving Competitions and the Community Federal Credit Union

Student Carving Competitions. The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P. For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore also won a $100 Wonderland Mall shopping spree.

With her gift certificate, Moore bought a University of Michigan Barbie doll and donated it to the AAA Crisis Center in Livonia, where she works.

Cathy Young, assistant marketing director for Wonderland Mall, hands Sherry Moore of Livonia her VIS prizes.

CELEBRATE The Grand Ballroom of the Kingsley Inn and Suites comes alive on New Year's Eve with a gala dinner and dance celebration featuring exquisite cuisine from the Unique Restaurant Corporation and the big brass sound of the Bugs Beddo Band. The bash kicks off at 8 p.m. The URC menu includes wild mushroom bique, fire-roasted tenderloin and Salmon Wellington. Chocolate passion provides the perfect ending.

After a night of partying and a complimentary champagne toast, revelers can retreat to luxurious rooms at the Kingsley to enjoy a good night's sleep and re-energize with a continental breakfast served until noon.

The cost is $289 per couple, including gala with drink tickets, hotel room, breakfast, tax and gratuity. A gala package without a guest room also can be purchased for $199, including tax and gratuity.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

The competitions for the 1999 festival will be sanctioned by the prestigious American Culinary Federation. Over $10,000 in prize monies and scholarships will be awarded.

Other activities of special interest include the Farmer Jack Fantasyland presented in conjunction with First of America Bank and Media One. This year's theme is "Insects Inside," and will feature displays of wild and crazy bugs.

Also, see the Bud Light 24 Light Show, the Ford Ice Carving Competitions and the Community Federal Credit Union

Student Carving Competitions. The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P. For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore also won a $100 Wonderland Mall shopping spree.

With her gift certificate, Moore bought a University of Michigan Barbie doll and donated it to the AAA Crisis Center in Livonia, where she works.

Cathy Young, assistant marketing director for Wonderland Mall, hands Sherry Moore of Livonia her VIS prizes.

CELEBRATE The Grand Ballroom of the Kingsley Inn and Suites comes alive on New Year's Eve with a gala dinner and dance celebration featuring exquisite cuisine from the Unique Restaurant Corporation and the big brass sound of the Bugs Beddo Band. The bash kicks off at 8 p.m. The URC menu includes wild mushroom bique, fire-roasted tenderloin and Salmon Wellington. Chocolate passion provides the perfect ending.

After a night of partying and a complimentary champagne toast, revelers can retreat to luxurious rooms at the Kingsley to enjoy a good night's sleep and re-energize with a continental breakfast served until noon.

The cost is $289 per couple, including gala with drink tickets, hotel room, breakfast, tax and gratuity. A gala package without a guest room also can be purchased for $199, including tax and gratuity.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

STUDENT CARVING COMPETITIONS

The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P.

For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore also won a $100 Wonderland Mall shopping spree.

With her gift certificate, Moore bought a University of Michigan Barbie doll and donated it to the AAA Crisis Center in Livonia, where she works.

Cathy Young, assistant marketing director for Wonderland Mall, hands Sherry Moore of Livonia her VIS prizes.

CELEBRATE The Grand Ballroom of the Kingsley Inn and Suites comes alive on New Year's Eve with a gala dinner and dance celebration featuring exquisite cuisine from the Unique Restaurant Corporation and the big brass sound of the Bugs Beddo Band. The bash kicks off at 8 p.m. The URC menu includes wild mushroom bique, fire-roasted tenderloin and Salmon Wellington. Chocolate passion provides the perfect ending.

After a night of partying and a complimentary champagne toast, revelers can retreat to luxurious rooms at the Kingsley to enjoy a good night's sleep and re-energize with a continental breakfast served until noon.

The cost is $289 per couple, including gala with drink tickets, hotel room, breakfast, tax and gratuity. A gala package without a guest room also can be purchased for $199, including tax and gratuity.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

The competitions for the 1999 festival will be sanctioned by the prestigious American Culinary Federation. Over $10,000 in prize monies and scholarships will be awarded.

Other activities of special interest include the Farmer Jack Fantasyland presented in conjunction with First of America Bank and Media One. This year's theme is "Insects Inside," and will feature displays of wild and crazy bugs.

Also, see the Bud Light 24 Light Show, the Ford Ice Carving Competitions and the Community Federal Credit Union

Student Carving Competitions. The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P. For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore also won a $100 Wonderland Mall shopping spree.

With her gift certificate, Moore bought a University of Michigan Barbie doll and donated it to the AAA Crisis Center in Livonia, where she works.

Cathy Young, assistant marketing director for Wonderland Mall, hands Sherry Moore of Livonia her VIS prizes.

CELEBRATE The Grand Ballroom of the Kingsley Inn and Suites comes alive on New Year's Eve with a gala dinner and dance celebration featuring exquisite cuisine from the Unique Restaurant Corporation and the big brass sound of the Bugs Beddo Band. The bash kicks off at 8 p.m. The URC menu includes wild mushroom bique, fire-roasted tenderloin and Salmon Wellington. Chocolate passion provides the perfect ending.

After a night of partying and a complimentary champagne toast, revelers can retreat to luxurious rooms at the Kingsley to enjoy a good night's sleep and re-energize with a continental breakfast served until noon.

The cost is $289 per couple, including gala with drink tickets, hotel room, breakfast, tax and gratuity. A gala package without a guest room also can be purchased for $199, including tax and gratuity.

Call for reservations, (248) 644-1400. The Kingsley Inn is located at 1475 N. Woodward in Bloomfield Hills.

Mark your calendar now for the American Lung Association of Michigan's Breakfast With Chanel at Saks Fifth Avenue. The presentation of the Chanel spring/summer 1999 ready-to-wear collection will be held Tuesday, Jan. 19 at 10 a.m. in the Designer Salon at the Somerset Collection store. RSVP by Friday, Jan. 16, (248) 359-5864. Patrons, $35; benefactors, $50; sponsors, $75.

WAY COOL

The Board of Directors of the 17th annual Plymouth International Ice Sculpture Spectacular Inc. proudly announces the 1999 event dates: Wednesday, Jan. 13 through Monday, Jan. 18.

The Plymouth festival is the oldest and largest ice carving event in North America. Each year, more than 500,000 visitors travel to this quaint town to see hundreds of professional, amateur, college and high school students transform 400,000 pounds of block ice into dazzling works of art.

The competitions for the 1999 festival will be sanctioned by the prestigious American Culinary Federation. Over $10,000 in prize monies and scholarships will be awarded.

Other activities of special interest include the Farmer Jack Fantasyland presented in conjunction with First of America Bank and Media One. This year's theme is "Insects Inside," and will feature displays of wild and crazy bugs.

Also, see the Bud Light 24 Light Show, the Ford Ice Carving Competitions and the Community Federal Credit Union

Student Carving Competitions. The event is open 24 hours a day, and the sculptures are lit up at night. Event hotline number is (734) 459-9157.

V.I.P. For Sherry Moore of Livonia, this holiday shopping season was less stressful — even enjoyable — thanks to Wonderland Mall and AirTouch Cellular.

On Nov. 29, Moore was randomly selected as Wonderland's "Very Important Shopper." In addition to free unlimited local use of a cellular phone courtesy of AirTouch Cellular and a special VIS parking spot through Jan. 3, Moore