Falcons unbeaten entering new year

Farmington High School finished the 1999 half of its schedule with a perfect record in boys basketball.

The Falcons won the championship of the Riverview Gabriel Richard holiday tournament Dec. 30, defeating the host Pinneers, 59-35.

Farmington takes a 5-0 record into its first game of the new year, which will be a showdown with Farmington Harrison in a battle of unbeaten teams Friday at Farmington. The Hawka have a 4-0 record.

It should be a good one,

John Wallace was the only Kichard player in double figures with 12 points. Ian Hamel tossed in seven for the Pioneers (1-4).

"It was a good tournament, a good win for us," Mikel said.
"The kids got some medals and we got a team trophy. It was a nice way to end the holiday break.

"We have a 5-0 mark to end the year, so we hope 2000 is just as kind to us as 1999 ended."

With the Western Lakes Activities Association schedule starting Friday, Mikel said the Falcons will fine stiff competition every game for the rest of the season.

cons will ince still competitive very game for the rest of the season.

"We were glad to be able to play over Christmas break," he said. "Hopefully, that's going to help us at the beginning of the new year. We won't be so long between games as we were in previous seasons.

"That was the reason for getting into a tournament; so we can stay competitive. We hope it pays off for us. I'm happy with tho way wore playing, Ail the kids are doing a good job and feeling pretty confident.

"But now we're going to step into the league season, and it's going to be pretty competitive. Hopefully, we can keep up the same intensity we had in the first five games."
