

Apply now for Rotary scholarships

Applications for 2001-02 Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships are now available from the Rotary Club of Farmington.

The scholarships, which are designed to further international understanding and goodwill, provide for study abroad in more than 160 countries where Rotary clubs are located. Some 1,800 scholarships of various types will be available from clubs worldwide.

During their studies abroad, Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholars act as "ambassadors of goodwill" through appearances before Rotary clubs and districts, schools, civic organizations, and other forums. The scholars represent their home-lands and work to further international understanding.

Academic-Year Ambassadorial Scholarships are for one academic year abroad and provide funding for round-trip transportation, tuition and fees, room, board, some educational supplies, and language training (if necessary), up to a maximum award of US $26,000 or its equivalent.

For more information and an application, please contact Jan Dulan, 22687 Gill Road, Farmington Hills, 48335. Deadline for students to submit applications is March 15. Interested students may also want to consult the Rotary website at www.rotary.org where the application may be downloaded in English.

The Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships are in the world's largest privately sponsored international scholarship program. Focused on humanitarian service, personal diplomacy, and academic excellence, the program has sponsored more than 30,000 Rotary Scholars abroad since it began in 1957.

Michigan, Michigan State University, "Hot Wheels" and items for coffee and chocolate fans. The most popular basket was, not surprisingly the "Pokémon" basket, which sold 1,000 tickets at 60 cents each.

The baskets were a collaborative effort for Gill students.

"We provided a list for students and asked them to bring in something off that list (for the baskets)," Perisano said.

The fact that the event made money was a pleasant surprise.

"We were just trying to break even and we ended up making $1,700," she said.

Patterson prepares for address

Oakland County Executive L. Brooks Patterson is putting the finishing touches on his first State of the County Address of the new millennium which he will deliver Thursday, Feb. 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Michigan State University Management Conference Center, 811 W. Square Lake Road in Troy.

The speech is not open to the public, but will be carried by WJR Radio (760 AM) on a tape delay basis.

STATE OF THE COUNTY

This year's State of the County Address will focus on new technology programs implemented over the past year that are designed to improve law enforcement's ability to fight crime, provide local communities with a way to transmit more data faster and easier and enable citizens to electronically access a treasure trove of information from the convenience of their home or office.

Patterson is also expected to talk about past achievements and discuss future projects including a new program that will provide a boost to local development and redevelopment efforts.

The following is a listing of activities in February for the Farmington Community Library. To reach the Farmington library, call 734-591-3333, and the downtown Farmington branch, 474-7770.

It's tax time! The library provides free copies of the most popular state and federal forms. Other forms are available at the Information Desk for photocopying. For internet users, copies of state forms are available from the Michigan Department of Treasury at <http://www.mtreasury.com> or from www.filedirect.com. Federal forms are available online from the IRS at <http://www.irs.gov>. For more information, call the Farmington branch library.

Investments

If you're an investor then be sure not to miss the Winter Investment Series sessions this month at 7 p.m. Tuesdays at the main library. For reservations call the main library.

In a two-part seminar, "Using Investors Business Daily Newspaper" on Feb. 8, Corale Corale will cover when market indicators forecast market corrections or advances, which market or sector is strongest, what indicators are most predictive, and much more.

John MacCall will give some basic, "tried and true" insights about the stock market in "Old Fashioned Stock Seminar" on Feb. 15.

Edgar Pugh, Jr. will explain how wills and trusts vary and when each is appropriate in his session "Wills, Trusts and Probate Avoidance" on Feb. 22.

Michael Visotzki will provide tips for building personal wealth in the future in "Wealth Building Strategies for the New Millennium" on Feb. 29.

Young adults

Programs just for young adults in February begin with a "Creative Writing Workshop." Join author and writing instructor Carol Carpenter for a reading of her work, "Generation to Generation." She will offer tips on writing and sign copies of her book 7:30 p.m. Feb. 29.

10 at the Farmington branch.

If you're 10-17 years old and interested in learning how to become a star in the young detective team this season is for you. A certificate is awarded to participants who complete "Planning Baby-sitting/Emergency Situation, Infant Care" and "Investigating with Clues." Sessions are scheduled 7:30-9 p.m. Feb. 17, 24 and March 2 at the main library. Call to register.

Looking for something fun to do during spring break? Visit the library's Mystery of the Week! "Who Killed Rebecca Blythe?" 7-8:30 p.m. Feb. 19 at the main library. Mystery participants will be playing the role of the suspects, visiting the scene of the crime and going on a scavenger hunt in the library to find clues. After solving the mystery a prize party will be held where the winning detective will also earn a copy of a mystery to read and solve. Prizes for each grade and up.

A fun-filled Valentine's program for the whole family will feature the movie and comedy of Beetlejuice at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 9 at the Farmington branch library. This program is sponsored by the Farmington Friends of the Library.

Coming March 2: A birthday party for Dr. Brown. Call for details.

Seniors

Sign up now for these special Internet classes in February at the library. Classes at the Farmington branch will be conducted in the newly renovated computer lab. Registration is required for all classes. Call the library for information on all programs and classes. Web Basics 101: Web 2.0: Beyond Point and Click; Finding and Printing Magazine Articles; and Using the Library Catalog.

Learn "How to Flip Stuff on the Web" by watching video search engines and how they work 7-8 p.m. at the main library on Feb. 21 and 7-8 p.m. Feb. 28 at the Farmington branch library.

Have "Investment Resources on the Web." Learn some of the more popular and better investment sites on the web at the main library 7-8:30 p.m. March 1.

A new "Spinning Seniors" class will feature basics for older adults, including instructions for the library catalog 2-3 p.m. Feb. 17 at the Farmington branch library. Refreshments will be provided.
