Malls celebrate Mardi Gras and Black History Month to attract winter business

Despite the cold weather and restlessness many of us feel in mid-winter, February isn't a busy month for retailers and shopping centers. Nonetheless, shopping malls always like to see foot traffic and keep loyal shoppers entertained and in good spirits as a result of their efforts.

It just makes good business And several area shopping centers are making big "to do's" out of upcoming events to drum up business and give area residents a reason to get out of the house and head to the mall.
