Second City

comes to town

Detroit's renowned Second City comedy troupe will bring their unique brand of humor to the suburbs on March 3 and 4 with a special weekend engagement at the historic Farmington Players Barn Theater.

Both shows, performed by the Second City National Touring Company, will feature a "best of" review of selected material along with improvisational acts.

Well known for the impressive list of comedians who began with the troupe, Alan Alda, Dan Aykroyd, John Belushi, John Candy, Gilda Radner, Bill Murray and Mike Myers, to name a few - Second City was started in Chicago in 1969, with the Detroit Second City launching in 1988.

Tickets for the 8 p.m. shows on March 3 and 4 shows are $25 each and can be obtained by calling the Farmington Players ticket hotline at (248) 553-2955. The theater is at 32332 W. 12 Mile Road.
