Springtime—My Favorite Season
God has given us the different seasons of the year for our enjoyment, and we should try to enjoy each and every month that we are blessed with. However, January and February are probably my least favorite months, because living in the Northeast, I associate these two months with colder weather and lots of snow. Since November has Thanksgiving and December has Christmas, I am really pretty content with the weather from March through December. March is the beginning of spring and even though in the past we have gotten some significant snowstorms during this month, we can look forward to warmer weather, longer days, and more sunshine. The Bible tells us to place our hope in God who generously gives us everything for our enjoyment; this includes the various seasons of the year. Also, St. Paul tells us that he has learned to be content with whatever situation he was in. So, next year I am going to try harder to enjoy January and February.
God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy.
K.J.V. 1 Timothy 6:17
