Be Happy With Your Life
If I could impart one bit of advice to anyone about life, it is this: be happy with where you are and with what you are doing at the present time. Life is so fleeting, and it does not make us; we make it! Sometimes it takes many years to come to the total realization of what is truly important in one's life, and to be genuinely happy. However, we should all live each day knowing that this is the best time of our existence; not yesterday nor tomorrow, but right now. And, I don't mean to say that we should not look forward to tomorrow, or that we did not learn from yesterday, but we should get up each day and realize that this is the day that the Lord has made. Today is our day, and it is up to each of us to make the best of it! And although we should not mind help from those around us to make our lives more pleasant and content, we should not depend solely on others to make us happy in lieu of our own efforts, and perhaps more importantly, our own outlook. Life is not always easy, but perhaps it should not always be easy. If we have a good day, we should thank God, and realize that more often, it is we who help to make it that way, and if it is a bad day, we are to blame for that as well.
The Lord has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy.
New International Version Psalm 126:3
