Oil-based paints, stains, pesticides, herbicides and other household hazardous wastes don't have to sit forgotten in your basement or garage.

This year, RRRASOC will offer five sites its contracted communities in April, May, June, September and October for you to take your hazardous wastes for disposal.

"Anyone who lives in these communities may go to these events. We have gone regional," said Heidi Jo Wayco, RRRASOC recycling coordinator. "Residents will have six opportunities now instead of just two."

The drop-off dates and sites are as follows:

- 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, April 22 at Wixom City Hall, 49045 Pontiac Trail, Wixom.
- 9 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, May 6 at 47th District Court, 32795 10 Mile, Farmington.
- 9 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, May 20 and Saturday, Oct. 14 at Southfield Civic Center, Ice Arena parking lot, 26000 Evergreen.
- 9 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 9 at Novi DPW, 26300 DelWal Drive, Novi.
- 9 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday, June 3 at Lyon Township Hall, 58000 Grand River, Lyon Township.

"We ask for a 10-gallon limit per vehicle," Wayco said, adding that you may return any number of times on the drop-off day.

She urges everyone, however, to transport the materials safely in their cars, perhaps putting paint cans in boxes so they don't leak.

Also new this year is the chance to bring in used motor oil, something that in the past was not done because local businesses often offered the service.

To participate you must show your proof of residency. Residents may attend any of the drop-off sites.
