Whalers from page B1

Whaler goalie Rob Zepp played in a higher gear the entire game, stopping 32 Greyhounds shots, at least six in short range.

His biggest save came at the 5:05 mark of overtime when he went down on his knees to knock away a blistering shot from the Soo's Ryan Milanovic, who was camped just a few feet outside the crease.

Every matched Zepp save-for-save most of the night, stopping 22 Whaler shots.

Following a scoreless first period, Plymouth drew first blood on a power play with 4:31 left in the second period when defenseman Cole Jarrett scored on a slapshot just outside the left face-off circle. Jarrett's goal, his third of the playoffs, was assisted by a cross-ice feed from fellow defender Shaun Fisher.

Plymouth had a golden opportunity to cement the game just over a minute later when Greyhound left-winger Ryan Jardine was sent to the penalty box for roughing. Soo coach Paul Theriault protested the call vehemently and displayed his anger by waving a white towel towards the official.

Theriault's theatrics earned him a two-minute bench misconduct penalty and dismissal from the game -- and gave the Whalers a two-man advantage.

With their backs against the wall, the Greyhounds not only killed the penalties, they tied the game 16 seconds after the penalties expired when defenseman Trevor Daley controlled a long rebound shot off Zepp's pads and fired the puck into the back of the net to make it 1-1.

It stayed that way until Williams' tally two-thirds of the way through overtime.

Plymouth killed off five two-minute penalties while the Greyhounds killed off eight of nine.

Game five was played Saturday night, beyond deadline. Results will appear in Thursday's Farmington Observer.

Congratulations: The Whalers celebrate their first goal.
