Wayne senior to receive scholarship

Jackie Haner started bowling at age 10 in 1992. At the time her mom, Sandy, was working in the pro e-hop at Jackie would roll some balls down the lane was off work.

Jackie would roll some balls down the lane was off work.

Mow she is a graduating senior at Wayne Momorial High School and is heading to Eastern Michigan University with a little bit of help in the way of a $200 scholarship oward in the name of yours truly (Al Harrisson).

The scholarship certificate is the 2000 Michigan State Bowling Council Journalist Award in the Professional Division, and will be awarded at their awards banquet Saturday, June 24, in Jackson.

This was an incredibly tough decision since there are so many other descripting youth bowlers.

Haner, however, was the first-ever femalo bowler to roll a perfect game in the Western Wayne Youth Travel Classic league last November at Cloverlanes in Livonia.

Her three-game set that day was 233-300-256 for a 789 series.

The list of her other achievements goes on and on.

In the W.W.Y.T.C. she was the league vice-president in 1998-99, and rolled six 700 series during the past two seasons.

She also made the girls Alli-City team twice in the Greater and rolled six 700 series during the past two seasons.

She also made the girls Allivarian with the same twice in the Greater Detroit YABA Yearbook. Harer also captured the YABA girl singles the past two years and set a record high series in the State YABA Tournament (708) in 1998-99. Six recently became a certified (level one) coach in the Junior Olympics.

She also volunteers her time on Saturdays to coach the
