Flags for sale now

Flags commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Korean War are now available for purchase from the Farmington Chamber of Commerce. The cost is $50.

The 3-feet by 5-feet colorfun mylon flags are a symbol of the unified effort of the U.S., the Equilic of Korea and cur allies to stop Communist aggression on the Korean peninsula 50 years ago.

The 22 stars represent the 22 allied nations that fought side-

JCC offers young teens travel day camps official commemorative flag.

Make checks payable to the Farmington Memorial Day
Parade Committee. The Chamber of Commerce is at 33000
Thomas St., Suite 101. Hours are Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Tragedy struck

Vintage Farmington from page B1

Crane, who had three children from a former marriage. Joan Crane was 6 1/2 years old and Barbara 4 when their mother remarried. Another daughter lived in Ohio.

Dr. Erickson planned to adopt the little girls.

Mary J. had been an actress and a singer. Her parenta lived in Ohio. Mary J. and Erickson had two children: Lois and Nancy. At their Farmington home, the children had animals and a pony. The Bond School was a short distance away. From Bond School, Barbara Crane went to Farmington High School where she graduated in 1944.

Tragedy struck

Iragedy struck
Unfortunately, tragedy struck the Erickson family. At the Green Briar Spa in June 1940,
the Ericksons were entertaining 400 guests - dectors, their wives and families. Little Lois had been left in Farmington with

some hired help. More help was needed with the luncheon and Lois came along as the help arrived to assist with the party. Lois, 7 at the time, left her socks and shoes on the abore and went out on the lake in a rowbeat without anyone seeing her. She drowned. Her father and some of the other doctors in attendance tried in vain to revive her.

some hired help. More help was needed with the luncheon and Lois came along as the help arrived to assist with the party. Lois, 7 at the time, left her socks and shoes on the shore and went out on the lake in a row-boat without anyone seeing her. She drowned. Her father and some of the other dectors in attondance tried in vain to revive her.

The following year, on Nov. 7, 1941, Dr. Erickson was hit by a car in Redford. He died three days later. Eventually, Mary Erickson remarried and moved days 1 the houses on Ardmore were sold.

Barbara married Bill Spiegel and had five children. Pat Majdi met James and Bevering the state where her later way. The houses on Ardmore were sold.

Barbara married Bill Spiegel and had five children. Pat Majdi selve will receive its Michigan State histories and author of "Heritage Homes of Farmington."

Chat Room from page B1

Gloomy and dense, flat low cell-ings invariably rain down upon us.

. How true is all this? Maintain a log of signs you observe and weather that follows. Not seven the whether those signs support your weather predictions. Will Ellen Herscher is a resident of Persistent study, I believe you will detect a recurrence of nearly flawless findings. Though not a schooled meteorologist, you can become a weather prognesticator who has a high percentage of accuracy.

Art Fest from page B1

tive audience ranging in age from elderly nuns to fourth-gradors.

gradors.

Also performing Tuesday were the Harrison High Jazz Ensemble, Flanders Lunch Percussion Ensemble, Farmington High Jazz Band, Eagle Elementary Choir and later in the evening the Farmington Community

20% Off

Αll

Prom

Dresses

.50%Off

Rose Talt

5-14-00

Band Clarinet Choir.
Festival coordinator Paul Barber said that more than 1,000 fourth graders in the district would visit the arts program Tuesday and Thursday. The Embrolderers' Guild, Hill and Dale Garden Club and Farmington Artist Club will also do hands-on work with youngstors today. Thursday performances are planned by Power Middle School Cadet Orchestra, East Middle School Choir and Jazz Band, Wood Creek Elomentary Orff Ensemble, North Formington High Jazz Band, Dunckel Middle School Choir and Farmington Community Band Flute Ensemble at 7 p.m.

Benefit for Angels Place

Friends of Angels' Place will hold their Annual Spring Filing and Auction on Saturday, May 13, at 8 p.m. at the Birmingham Country Club, 1750 Sexon Drive, Birmingham, The evening will include music, cocktails, and a silent auction featuring sports memorabilia, game tickets, golf packages and more. John Keating, on-air personality, Fox Sports Network, will emcee the event. Tickets are $40 per person, 775 per couple. Proceeds benefit Angels' Place, a nonprofit organization providing Christian homes and support services for adults with developmental disabilities whose aging parents or guardinas can no longer provide necessary caro.

necessary care.
Call 360-2203 for reservations
by May 8.

Bring In All Of Your Old Diamonds & Gold Rolex Watches Wanted

$1.99 Batteries for Most Watch

33463 W. 7 Mile Rd. Livonia • (248) 442-7878

Toens can travel the metropolitan Detroit area with the Jewish Community Campolita or an experiment of the Jewish Community Campolita or an experiment of the Jewish Community Campolitan or an experiment of the Jewish Campolitan or an experiment of th May 9, 2000 Reserve this date for a head start on a great new millennium!

Take charge of your career and future in 2000 and attend one of our upcoming recruiting Choose Successi Tuesday, May 9, 2000, at 6:00 p.m.

12434 12 Mile Road Warren, MI Hosted by Scott L Evans, Investment Representative 810-558-5631

128 North Center Northville, MI Hosted by Todd D. Knickerbocker, Investment Representative 248-348-9815

Independence. Higher earning potential. Top notch support. Those are just a few of the advantages you'll enjoy as an Edward Jones investment representative. Don't miss this chance to discover why Edward Jones is ranked No. 7 in Fortune magazine's 100 Best Companies to Work For listing. Start the new millennium with a new career and enjoy the lifestyle and future you deserve. Give us a call today so we can reserve your spot. We are currently looking for qualified individuals to open additional offices in Detroit and the surrounding area. Edward Jones

Serving Individual Investors Since 1871

ME Health Centers

n' Feel Better