In Saturday's clincher, the Whalers were as good as Gooldy — four-year veteran Eric Gooldy, who scored twice, including an icing-on-the-cake gool at 9:04 of the third period that gave Plymouth a 3-1 lead.
Seconds after Whaler goalie Rob Zepp made an eye-popping save on a shot by the Soo's Rob Chapman, Gooldy took a pinpoint pass from Tomas Kurka and broke free down the right side. He then whistled a shot past Greyhound goalie Ray Emery's glove hand to give his team a two-goal cushion.
And the way Zepp was playing, it might as well have been a 22-goal lead. The red-hot net-minder stopped 31 of 32 shots, many from just in front of the crease.

The OHL Finals begin at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Barrie. Games Two and Three will be at Plymouth's Compuware Arens, at 7 p.m. Sunday and 7:30 p.m. Monday.

"Considering we were picked to miss the playoffs, advancing to the finals is very satisfying," said Plymouth coach Pete DeBoer. "Overall, we have a series of the finish it off. That was defined to the control of the control

In the early going, it looked as though both teams may be taking the five-and-a-half-hour bus ride up to the Soo for game six. The Greybounds scored the game's first goal at the 6:02 mark of the first period when Corey Pecker slid a rebound shot past Zepp to make it 1-0.

The Whalers outshot the Groy-hounds, 12-8, in the opening 20 minutes, but couldn't solve Emery.

Gooldy knotted the game at 1-1 just ever three minutes into the second period when he outhustled a Soo playor for the puck, skated in front of the neat and jammed a shot past a sprawling Emery. Gooldy's third goal of the playoffs was assisted by Stephen Welss and Kurka.

Plymouth's Randy Fitzgerald scored the eventual game-winner 35 seconds later when he wristed a rebound shot into the back of the net.

The OHL final-round series should be interesting since it pits a team with low pre-season expectations (Plymouth) against 48 goals and 73 assists (121 points) during the season and has eight goals and eight assists (16 points) in 18 playoff games.

Michael Henrich, who totaled 86 points during the season, has led the Colts in the playoffs with eight goals and 16 assists. And Mike Jefferson is another weapon; he had 34 goals and 53 assists during the season and has contributed three goals and 12 assists in the playoffs.

But defense usually rules at this point, and Plymouth has the edge in that department. The Whalors Reb Zepp has been superb in all 16 games, allowing just 29 goals, a 1.79 average, while posting two shutcuts.

Barrie's Brain Finley has surrendered 39 of his team's 43 playoff goals allowed for a 2.51 goals-against average.

Look for this series to be offense-vs.-defense, and which team can raise the level of play in the areas it figures to be its weakest.
