Crusaders stay alive in baseball regional

It was a long first day for Madonna University at the NIAA Region VIII Baseball Tournament.

The Fighting Crusaders opened the four-team, double-elimination tournament, hosted by Indiana Wesleyan University in Marion, Ind., by losing to Marion (Ind.) College 8-5. A six-run fifth inning doomed Madonna, although it did get back to within 6-5 entering the bottom of the sixth.

That put the Crusaders, facing elimination, up against Huntingdon College, which fell to Indiana Tech earlier Friday. This game took 12 innings before Madonna emerged with a 7-6 victory and life in another day.

The game-winning rally against Huntingdon in the top of the 12th inning started with a Derek Wolfe lead-off single. Todd Miller (Farmington Hills) singled, sending Wolfe to third.

The Crusaders pulled off a double steal, Wolfe scoring the go-ahead run and Miller reaching third on an error. A single by Eric Lightle (Livonia) scored Miller with an insurance run.

Mitch Jabczynski went all 12 innings on the mound for Madonna to get the win; he gave up five earned runs on 13 hits and one walk, striking out five.

Lightle finished with three hits, including a double, and three RBI. Wildlong also had three hits (double), scored three runs and knocked in another; Miller added three hits.

able player without a doubt. He's so good so often that it's hard not to take him for granted sometimes.

The Whalers didn't muster a shot on goal until the 16:10 mark of the first period, but it was well worth the wait. Seconds after Finley kicked away Dan Surrma's shot — the Whalers' first of the contest — George Nistas pounced on the rebound and shoveled it past a diving Finley at the 16:05 mark. Justin Williams and Surrma were credited with assists on the goal.

"We are a very confident team right now," Nistas said. "All four of our lines are playing well."

Barrie outshot Plymouth 8-6 in the penalty-free opening period.

Plymouth's penalty-killing units excelled throughout the game, shutting out all four Colt power-play opportunities. The most-crucial one came at the 14:13 mark of the third period after Whaler forward Jamie LaLonde was sent to the box for an unsportsmanlike infraction.

During the two minutes LaLonde was in the box, the Whalers outshot Barrie, 3-1.

Plymouth has shut down Barrie's leading scorer Ryan O'Keefe and Ryan Barnes throughout the series.

If they do it again tonight, there won't be a game seven Tuesday night at Compuware Arena, said Barrie interim head coach Bud Stefanski.

"There's no doubt we have to get our big guns going," he confirmed. "They got us this far and they're the ones that are going to have to keep us alive (Sunday)."

Farmington girls rally to win lacrosse contest

Farmington United earned its second victory in girls lacrosse May 3 when it rallied to defeat Huron Valley, 15-14.

Christina Ford scored six goals, and Kristy Baker and Jenny Adams had two each.

Baker scored the winning goal in the final minute. Farmington led by four goals at halftime but was down three midway through the second half. But it rallied and tied the score with a minute remaining.

Defensive point Kristen Westlund played "an exceptional game" and was instrumental in holding down a strong attack by Huron Valley in the last minute, according to coach Mike Mehall, who also cited the play of goalie Wendy Bakken.

Farmington (2-6) lost to visiting Grassie Pointe North on Wednesday, 12-4.

Stephanie Yacoub scored two goals for Farmington, Lindsay Hirzel and Ford one apiece.

Yacoub, Ford, Bakken and Baker were selected as Farmington's top players in the game.
