Guisbert's pitching lifts Farmington

Sophomore Kelsey Guisbert pitched seven solid innings Monday, and Farmington High maintained its divisional lead in girls soft-ball.

Guisbert scattered nine hits but didn't wilk anybody in guiding the Falcons to a 9-5 win over host Livonia Stevenson. She struck out twe.

The Falcons play an important division doubleheader today at Plymouth Salem.

Danielle Lewis went 4-for-4 with a triple and scored three runs to lead Farmington's offense.

Becky DePotter (triple) and Sarah Goetzke (double) had three hits each as the Falcons pounded a total of 16.

Meghan O'Rear chipped in a pair of doubles and two RBI. DePotter had four RBI, Lewis and Goettke one apiece.

Stevenson's Katie King and Amy Hollandsworth were 3-for-4. Amanda Jankowski hit a two-run single, and Sarah Pinto drove in a run with a sacrifice fly.

Kelley Hutchins was the losing pitcher; she fanned five and walked two. The Spartans made two errors, the Falcons one.

"I'm extremely happy with our defense," Osborne said. "We put up nine runs, but the thing I'm most happy with is the defense.

"Kelsey did a great job and now it's a matter of us maintaining that level of play with Kelsey or Jessica on the mound, because we're not sure how long Melissa is going to be out."

The Falcons were 9-8 overall prior to a WLAA crossover game Wednesday with Livnia Franklin.
