Harrison capped his performance with a victory in the 1,600 relay as Shabaj held off a late charge by Canton's Jerry Gaines to win with an area-best time of 3:26.8. The Hawks got a big lift from Brad Person, who won the discus. "We know he would be up there, but that was a surprise; that was his big Red Lead." Mobley's impressive run and first-place finish in the 3,200 locked the Vikings into second place. Dollaway called Mobley's overall performance "tremendous. It takes a special person to run the 1,600 and win it, finish third in the 800 and come back to win the 3,200," he said. The Vikings had the best entry time in the 1,600 relay but had no reason to go all out in that race and finished fourth. "Hritcu is our best 400 runner, and he tightened up in the hamstring in the 200," Dollaway said. "Since we were a solid second anyway, there was no sense taking a chance. He's in the state meet in four events."

Canton coach Bob Richardson said the Chiefs missed Ugo Okwumabun, who suffered a knee injury on his final attempt in the long jump at the May 19 regional. "He would have given us an even bigger lead," Richardson said. "We hope to get him back for the state meet."
