"She's been our No. 4 hitter all year," Arnold said. "She makes good contact with the ball and hits with a little power, too."

Brown scored on Jenna Perling's groundout, and Stewart made it 4-0 on a double steal after a walk to Christina Kiesel.

"We haven't been able to score (in previous games)," Stewart said. "We have the record for extra innings, so scoring in the first inning makes it a lot nicer and easier for me."

"I always worry when we're the visiting team against a good team like (Farmington)."

Stewart didn't have any need to worry, however, as she dominated the Falcons (9-14) with her pitching and the Chiefs played errorless defense. Stewart has pitched 17 1/2 innings and has 271 strikeouts.

"She did a great job," Farmington coach Jerry Osborne said.

(Brown) back at second base and better opportunity to win the ballgame," Osborne said.

"I think everybody there who has seen Melissa pitch knows she wasn't 100 percent. But that shows the kind of heart and determination she has."

"She wanted to go out doing the best she could and under the circumstances, I think she did very well."

Canton added single runs in the second, third and fourth innings. Megan Coultas and Devos scored as a result of Farmington errors, and Kiesel singled and scored on a base hit by Coultas.

"I think the whole team settled down (after the first inning)," Osborne said. "We know, for us to beat them, we had to play a perfect game, and we didn't do that."

"Melissa did her job; she threw strikes. We didn't make all the plays behind her."

"Even so, they beat us. They made every play and we didn't; they put the ball in play and got some hits and we didn't."

"They deserved to win that ballgame."

Marlins rout Blue Jays

Farmington Hills Mercy had no trouble advancing beyond the pro-district round in girls softball Tuesday.

The Marlins erased Southfield from the tournament field with a 15-0, three-inning, mercy-rule victory.

Winning pitcher Erin Howard threw a no-hitter and didn't allow a walk. She had three strikeouts.

The only thing marring an otherwise perfect game was an error that allowed a Southfield batter to reach base.

The runner was promptly picked off base, and Howard still faced the minimum nine batters.

Mercy had 16 hits and scored five runs in each inning.

Anna Schneider led the Marlins by going 3-for-3 with three RBI. Molly O'Malley, Dana Falvo and Carrie Brankiewicz had two hits apiece.

Brankiewicz also had two RBI; Schneider, Falvo and Erin Carson scored two runs each.

The Marlins, who lost to Tranton (5-4) and host Dearborn Divine Child (4-0) on Saturday, were 28-10 overall prior to playing two more games Wednesday against Novi and Divine Child.

Mercy will play Detroit Henry Ford in a district tournament game Saturday morning at Birmingham Groves.

coach Scott Dickey of Johnson's performance. "He's been our ace all year. He had a couple of tough losses to Farmington Harrison, but he pitched well."

"He not only throws hard, but he only walked 10 batters going into this game."

Ian Fardonnnet took the loss for Farmington; he lasted 1 1/2 innings, giving up seven runs (all measured) on five hits and no walks, striking out one.

Canton's first two runs were the result of an infield error on leadoff batter Bryan Kay's grounder and a perfect bunt single by Jim Reddy.

Key moved to third on Oliver Wolcott's fly to center and then Fardonnnet tried to pick off Reddy at first with Johnson tagging. But Fardonnnet's throw went into right field. Kay scored, and when the throw to third to try and get Reddy eluded Bob Houchins, Reddy scored, too.

Jason Evans opened Canton's second inning with a single; a throwing error moved him to second. A dropped fly ball and an infield error scored one run; Reddy followed with an RBI single, and Wolcott added a run-scoring double.

Jim Wisniewski knocked in the fourth run of the inning with a sacrifice fly, and Johnson made it 7-0 with an RBI double.

The Falcons got one run back in the bottom of the second when Tony Luttman led off with a double and scored on Houchins' two-out single.

Wisniewski doubled in Wolcott, who had walked, to give the Chiefs one run in the fourth. A second scored on a throwing error on Johnson's grounder, pushing their lead to 9-1.

The game-condensing hit came from Kay, who followed Brad Smigielaki's walk by pouncing on a hanging curveball from Luttman, Farmington's relief pitcher. Kay lined it over the left-field fence for a two-run homer, making it 11-1.

Wisniewski had two hits, one of them a double, and two RBI for the Chiefs, and Reddy had two hits and an RBI. Kay had his two-run homer, reached base four times and scored three runs. Wolcott and Johnson each had a double and an RBI.

third inning.

Two errors, two hits, two walks and a hit batsman created the five-run frame for the Falcons.

The Shamrocks rallied for their three runs in the fourth. John Hill smacked a solo home run; Matt Loidas walked and scored on Mike Wadowski's double, and Jake Viane doubled home Wadowski.

Kevin Enslinger took the loss, but only one of the five runs he allowed was earned. He gave up five hits, struck out eight, and walked five.

Bob Houchins went the distance for Farmington, doing out four hits, walking three and striking out six.

Leadoff hitter Justin Gerwetowski went 2-for-3, with a double and a run scored for the Falcons.

Farmington's Preston Picard and Chris Cheney had two hits each in the loss to St. Mary's.
