UNIVERSALIST UNITARIAN CHURCH

The Universalist Unitarian Church of Farmington Sunday program for June 11: Rev. Bob Reillyan conducts RE Sunday. Please join us as we celebrate a year in the life of our Religious Education program and help us honor our young people and their achievements. Our annual church picnic will follow the 11 a.m. service once again taking place at Maybury State Park. No Sunday school this week. Services at 9 and 11 a.m. 25301 Halsted Rd. (north of Grand River) Info: 248-478-7272 or www.uuwnet.com/~uuc/

ORCHARD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Orchard United, at 30450

Farmington Road, between Thirteen and Fourteen Mile roads, invites all children in the community 4 years through grade 4 to join us at Sonlight Discovery Center Vacation Bible School from Monday through Friday, July 17-21, from 9 a.m. to noon. The closing program on Sunday, July 23, at 10 a.m. is a musical event for the whole family. Son-Zone is a special place, an inventor's museum designed for kids. Children will join Professor Mega-noggin in her search for God's awesome plan. They'll explore the wonders of the universe through lively songs, humorous skits and science with a twist based crafts and games. They'll look in the Bible for answers to some important questions such as, "Why am I here?" "What is God like?" and "Why did Jesus have to die?" Registration required by July 1: $12 per family with maximum of $24 per family. For information, call 626-3620.

CONGREGATION SHIR TIKVAH

At 7:45 p.m. Friday, June 9, teenagers who have completed Congregation Shir Tikvah's high school program invite the public to join them in a Sabbath service they have written. After the service, at approximately 10 p.m., Congregation Shir Tikvah will host its second all-night Shavout spiritual celebration. The evening will consist of singing, drumming, praying, teaching and facilitated discussion, lead by Rabbi Arnie Stuleitberg and Eli Cohen, the congregation's High Holiday Cantor. Participants will use the Tree of Life to examine their lives as Jews and as individuals.

Each participant is asked to pay $20 and bring a dish to share. Congregation Shir Tikvah is at 3900 Northfield Parkway south of Washtenaw between Crooks and Coledge in Troy. To make reservations call the Temple office at (248)649-4418, ext. 11.

THEOLOGY ON TAP — HOLY NAME

Holy Name Church continues

Carol Weintraub Fogel

Administrative secretary Carol Tarcia.

Past president Joyce Weingarten serves as advisor. Sisterhood board members elected to serve for the coming season are: Danie Allan, Sheri Biederman, Toby Dobkin, Sandi Duschinsky, Micki Grossman, Helayne Kaplan, Sonia Kass, Michal Korman, Sharon Moss Lebovic, Linda Levy, Karen Lewis, Carol Lifton, Bobbie Miller, Sandi Miller, Sharon Oppenheim, Linda Rosenbaum, Karen Rosender, Ruth Singer, Gerrie Sullish, Hannah Monique Urych, Sarah Waldman, Brenda Weingarten and Shoshana Wolok.

Sisterhood officers and board members were installed at the synagogue's Installation Shabbat on Friday, June 2.

Theology on Tap with a four-week June series, 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesdays, at Dick O'Dowd Irish Public House in downtown Birmingham.

Monsignor Zenz and the Rev. Chip Farrar return as hosts, joined by the Rev. Tim Laboe of St. Vincent Parish in Pontiac. The theme is "Both/And," exploring how the Catholic faith invites one to be as inclusive as possible instead of separating in terms of either/or.

On June 13, the topic is "Home and Away." The Rev. Tim Laboe will reflect on the challenge of living one's faith in the marketplace. A professional-lawyer-turned-priest, he will speak from his own personal and professional experience, and challenge audience members to find a balance between professional and spiritual lives. He will also share stories of time spent in Brazil at the Archdiocesan mission.

The program is free and open to the public.

LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Noted expert in Irish genealogical research, Richard Michael Doherty, will be the featured lecturer at a free genealogical seminar sponsored by the The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Church's Family History Center in Bloomfield Hills, from 6:30 - 9:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 13. Inquiries may be directed to the center at (248)647-6671.

The Family History Center is located at 426 North Woodward Avenue and is open weekly to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday and 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday.

EILU V EILU

Eilu v Eilu, the adult Jewish learning project of the Michigan Conservative movement, will offer a variety of day and evening adult Jewish learning opportunities this summer. For more information, call (248)693-3490, e-mail eliluearn@aol.com, or visit the Eilu v Eilu website, <http://www.chahm.org/elilu.htm>.

■ "God & The Big Bang: Science, Torah and the Lives We Lead Today," for young adults ages 22 to 40, is one Wednesday night a month at Borders Books & Music, 30995 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills. Free. Next in the series, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 21, Rabbi Elliott Pachter discusses "Jewish Perspectives on High-tech Birthing."

■ The Reish Hodesh Women's Learning Minyan, for women only, welcomes each new month on the Jewish calendar with prayer and study led by women from Conservative synagogues throughout metro Detroit. Contact Eilu v Eilu at the above number or website for a list of upcoming dates.

Men's club names president

Gary Graff has been elected president of the Adat Shalom Men's Club. He and other men's club officers and trustees were installed at the congregation's Installation Shabbat on June 2.
