The Salt of the Earth

After our Lord Jesus delivered His Sermon on the Mount to His disciples, He then told them that they were the "salt of the earth and the light of the world." With these encouraging words, Jesus was telling His disciples know that their behavior and actions would be examples for others to follow. A person who is considered the "salt of the earth and the light of the world," is someone who is honest, trustworthy, virtuous, and a reflection of God's love and righteousness. Unfortunately, many people are not salt enough to be salt. However, our Lord still wants His followers to be decent, shining examples of love and righteousness. The Sermon on the Mount tells us that Blessed are those who are humble and whose greatest desire is to do God's will, and to be merciful and pure in heart. Every today, the Lord calls us to follow our Lord as salt for all mankind, and light for the whole world.

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven ...
R.S.V. Matthew 5:12
