CC coasts to district crown

Redford Catholic Central had a pretty easy time in winning its own Division I district baseball tournament Saturday, cruising to a 21-0 win over Detroit Cody in the semifinal, then using Kevin Entaminger's no-hitter in the final for a 19-0 win over Detroit Mumford.

"Cody was pretty young and inexperienced," said CC coach John Salter. "Cooley's pitcher had gone two innings in their semifinal and he got tired. It was 9-0 in the fifth inning and we hit their relief pitching pretty hard and scored 10 runs in the top of the sixth."

Entaminger gave up a walk and hit a batter, while striking out seven in earning the win and also went 4-for-5 at the plate with a walk and four runs scored.

Phil Marrone also helped the Shamrocks (20-11) by going 2-for-4 with a walk, a HBP and two RBI, and Anthony Coratti was 2-for-3 with three runs scored and two RBI.

Marrone led the way at the plate in the opener by going 3-for-3 with four runs scored, an RBI while walking once and being hit by a pitch. Brian Williams added two hits, including a double, and had three RBI, while Coratti was 2-for-2 with two runs scored.

Adam Kline (4-2) got the win on two-hitter in four innings, while striking out 10.

After rolling to a 14-2 win over Southfield Lathrup in a Division I district semifinal on Saturday, Redford Union came up short in the final and lost to host Birmingham Groves, 8-6.

Marlins from page C1

Moghan Van Biager was 3-for-4 and had three RBI for Groves. Nicole Uzelac, Becky Hughes and Molly Gale were 2-for-4. Uzelac also scored two runs.

Amanda Webster pitched a complete game for the Falcons, walking two.

The 2000 Marlins are the first in school history to win 50 games, according to Falvo.

Carson and Dana Falvo are four-year varsity players who have helped Mercy compile a 101-44 record during their careers.

"I have to compliment Dana and Erin as senior captains who have led this team," Jack Falvo said. "In terms of the won-loss record, it's the most successful season we've had."

Mercy advanced to the district final with a 17-0 rout of Detroit Henry Ford in three innings.

Howard pitched to just 10 batters, struck out six and didn't walk any. The Trojans had one hit.

The Marlins had nine hits and also benefited from 14 walks, three hit batters and numerous Ford errors.

Tracy was 3-for-3 and scored three runs; Lindsey Fedak, Carrie Brankiewicz and Carson scored two runs apiece.

The regional final could be an all-Oakland event should Plymouth Canton defeat Warren Mott in the other semifinal.

"(Canton's) Jim Arnold is a top-notch coach, and he'll have his team ready to play," Falvo said, adding his Mercy teams are 0-2 against Canton. "We hope to get past Mumford, have a chance to play Canton and see what we can do."

Raiders upset Chiefs in opener

Chalk one up for the underdogs.

North Farmington, which entered a Division I district baseball tournament Saturday with a modest 5-16 record, surprised Plymouth Canton, 6-4, to advance to the championship game later that afternoon against Plymouth Salem.

The Chiefs, who finished the season 22-10, played without two key members of their team who were suspended by coach Scott Dickey for unspecified reasons.

"We didn't have our top pitcher and one of our top hitters, so that definitely hurt us a little," Dickey said. "But we had three errors that cost us four runs."

"It was a disappointing way to end what was a good season."

North coach Irv Horwitz heaped high praise on junior pitcher Jeff Granat, who threw a complete game and a seven-hitter against the Chiefs.

"Jeff pitched one of his better games this season, and he picked a good time to do it," Horwitz said.

"Canton made a nice comeback in the bottom of the seventh, and I was one batter away from replacing Jeff, but he finished the job."

The game was tied 2-2 when North exploded for four runs in the top of the fifth inning.

Junior Mike Liverlove stroked a two-run double, and senior Zach Leasway added a two-run single in the big inning.

Trailing 6-2 entering the final frame, Canton scored twice and loaded the bases with two outs, but it couldn't get the key two-out hit when it needed it the most.

Junior third baseman Jeff

Vieder wielded a hot piece of lumber for the Raiders, drilling two doubles.

Bryan Kay and Oliver Wolcott had two hits apiece for the Chiefs.

so I didn't know if our guys thought they could play with them. But we came out and played a great game, falling just a little short at the end."

Lukasik paced the Salem hitters with three hits, a run scored and a stolen base. Goethe also had a solid game, ripping two singles and scoring twice.

Salem played aggressively on the basepaths, swiping four bases.

"When you run a lot like we did today, it forces the pitcher to throw the ball right down the middle of the plate," Rumberger said.

Seek provided the most punch for North, going 2-for-2 with two RBI and a walk.

Goodman also proved to be a tough out for the Raiders, reaching base three of the four times he stepped to the plate.
