CATHERINE E. BURDETTE-STOLZER
Services for Catherine E. Burdette-Stolzer, 84, of Farmington Hills, were held Jan. 5 in Festus, Mo.

Always the teacher, Catherine encouraged her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren to find love in others and live life to its fullest. Being widowed at the age of 34, Catherine single-handedly raised her three small children while working several jobs to earn her college degree in education.

At the age of 54, Catherine embarked upon a new career as a teacher for the U.S. Department of Defense. For 20 years she taught in exotic lands in the Middle East, Europe and Asia, despite the fact that she knew no foreign languages. Her adventures allowed her to run with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain, ride bulls in Pamplona, Spain, ride elephants in Nepal and camels in Morocco, and to witness Christmas Eve celebrations in Bethlehem. Other experiences include experiencing the bombing of the American Culture Center from her apartment in Turkey, kissing the Blarney Stone in Ireland, climbing the Great Wall of China, and attending the Swan Lake Ballet at the Bolshoi in Russia.

Her 80s found new adventures awaiting her in Farmington Hills where she was very active in the Senior Center. She wrote, produced and worked the cameras at TV 10, participated in the "Tale of the Town" and joined writing clubs. Every year she would travel throughout the U.S. to attend the DOD Teachers' Reunions, as well as many AARP conventions. Several of her friends and family were passing this time. She even wrote her own eulogy that was read by her daughter at her funeral.

She is survived by children, Charmaine Ragusa, Gary Stolzer and Wayne Stolzer; eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Victor.
