

CC wins meet without its star skier

No Matt Gable? No problem. Detroit Catholic Central, minus its top skier, edged runner-up Brighton by three points, 38-39, Thursday to take over first place in the Mount Brighton Ski League.

Farmington Hills Marcy slipped to second for the first time this season on the girls side, but it still retained a healthy hold on first place in its division.

Gable coaches both squads and son Matt was scheduled to ski in a regional meet during the weekend.

"Our seniors skied well," Gable said of CC's win in which two of his skiers had top-five finishes and two others were in the second 10. "It showed we have a little depth."

"We have now taken over our division lead, and I think we've got the talent, depth and experience to hang on to the lead."

John Goebel finished second overall in the boys alalom, turning in runs of 13.60 and 17.00 for a 30.69 total. Eric Sullivan was fifth overall with a 31.10 time on runs of 14.29 and 17.81.

Ryan Boudreau placed 13th at 34.04, turning in times of 16.38 and 18.66 on his runs, while Joe Murray was 16th with a combined time of 34.15 (16.25 and 18.90).

Che Martinez clocked a 36.13 good for 24th place, and Steve Johnston was 33rd at 38.21.

Disqualifications to two of its top skiers cost Marcy first place as the Marlinas were edged out by Brighton, 31-48.

"We slipped one spot but our depth still showed," Gable said. "We're still first because we've had four first places."

"To have two of your top skiers go down with four to go — and all four do well — that's a coach's dream."

Freshman Liz Kujala was fourth in the girls alalom. Her combined time of 36.09 came on runs of 19.60 and 16.49.

Laura Burek was eighth at 39.02. She had runs of 20.39 and 18.63.

Marcy Godlew took a 13th place (42.99), turning in runs of 22.96 and 20.01, while Melissa Desautel was 23rd (46.55) with times of 26.45 and 21.20 on her turns. Nikki Anderson and Nicole Zaleski were disqualified.
