You are part of the good, not subject to the good

Being a Peacemaker
Part of the "Sermon on the Mount" which our Lord taught His disciples was, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." In the Bible, there is a great deal written about peace. Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; My peace I give you" (John 14:27). He told us to "Be at peace with each other" (Mark 9:50). It seems that peace and love go together; you can't have one without the other. Being a peacemaker is not always easy. We realize this world is not paradise; therefore, we will always have to contend with conflicts and strife. Still, a peacemaker treats others with respect and consideration and honors God's word of treating others as they would want to be treated. Peace and love, along with joy and happiness, are virtually impossible without God. But, with our Lord Jesus all things are possible, and through Him we should strive to live at peace with everyone.
Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.
