But a few breakdowns at pivotal junctures, which the Rocks hungrily pounced on, ruined any hopes for the Hawks as Salem collected its fifth-straight victory, 66-60.

The Rocks are 6-6 overall, 6-2 in the Western Lakes Activities Association. Harrison is 2-12 overall, 0-3 in the W.L.A.A. "We had a good first half," said Harrison coach Dave Turnquist. "But their defensive switch (in the second half) caused us to be tentative. It took our aggressiveness away."

"The Hawks' quickness was an apparent problem for Salem in the first half. Led by LeDarus Brown's 10 first-quarter points, Harrison used a 10-3 closing spurt to take a 19-10 lead after one period.

"The pressure continued in the second quarter, with the Hawks maintaining their nine-point edge (30-21) with just over a minute to go in the half. But Salem cashed in on a couple of turnovers down the stretch to score the last five points of the half, narrowing the gap to 30-28.

The second half was different. The Rocks became the assertive ones.

"In the first half, we played primarily man-to-man (defense)," said Rocks' coach Bob Brodie. "In the second half, we went with a lot of combination defenses in addition to our man-to-man.

"We just kept switching defenses and gave them one shot. I think we took them out of their tempo."

The Rocks showed some offensive determination to start the second half, going on a 10-1 run over the first 3:15 (Jeff Hagar accounting for five of those points) as they turned a four-point deficit into a five-point lead. However, Harrison reversed that over the last 2:33 of the third quarter, outscoring Salem 9-1 to take a 48-43 lead into the fourth.

"I impressed upon them (at halftime) that rebounding was the key and Harrison was getting too many second chances," said Brodie.

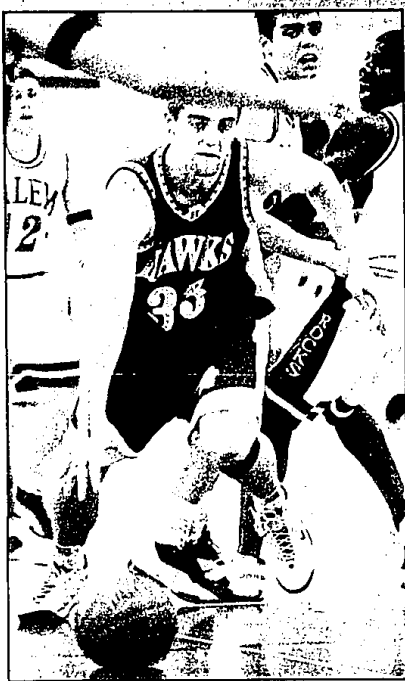

That changed in the second half. Salem controlled the boards far more effectively, particularly on its own missed free throws. Three times in the last two quarters the Rocks grabbed the offensive rebound off a free-throw miss.

The Hawks would not go quietly, however. A triple by Ross with 3:48 remaining in the game put them ahead 63-62. But Salem answered with an 8-2 run spearheaded by Nick Tochman and Hagar, each scoring four points, to give the Rocks a 60-65 lead with under two minutes left.

Still, the Hawks had life. Two foul throws by Matt Ely, followed by a Salem turnover and foul, put Ralph Plumley at the line with a one-and-one situation, facing a three-point deficit with 1:10 left. But Plumley missed and Hoskins converted two foul shots at the line and to restore Salem's five-point lead.

"In spurts, we have shown we can play basketball with anyone," said Turnquist. "We just haven't been able to sustain it. We're still searching for the right combination."

Tochman finished with 21 points and seven rebounds to pace Salem. Hagar added a solid all-around performance, netting 17 points, five assists and four steals. Hoskins collected 19 points and seven boards, and Scott Discher hit three three-pointers to score nine points. Harrison's Brown netted 23 points. Ross had 11 and Terrill Mayberry totaled eight. Salem made 15 of 29 free throws, Harrison seven of 13.

Catholic Central clinches division

BASKETBALL

Add another title to the Redford Catholic Central trophy case.

On Tuesday, the Shamrocks outscored host Warren DeLaSalle 30-19 in the decisive fourth quarter to wrap up the Catholic League Central Division boys basketball title, 73-65. DeLaSalle was the defending Central champion, but CC has now won three of the last four.

Ryan Celestrey led CC (12-3, 6-1) with 26 points, while Mark Willoughby and Tom Jakacki added 16 and 11, respectively. Jeff Grauer paced DeLaSalle (11-4, 4-3) with 16 points. Diallo Spigner and Tony Wickman added 12 each.

CC made 16 of 19 free throws in the final period. "We played lot better defensively," CC coach Rick Coratti said. "We picked up our intensity more in second half. We got the spurt off of turnovers."

"They (DeLaSalle) played well in first half. They were sly. Playing there is tough, but we were only down three at half, and that was good."

JOHN GLENN 48, CHURCHILL 44: Michael Franks had 10 of his 12 points in the final quarter Tuesday as host Westland John Glenn earned a Western Lakes Activities Association victory over Livonia Churchill.

Glenn is now 4-10 overall and 3-5 in the Western Lakes, while Churchill falls to 2-12 and 1-7.

Franks, who shared team-high scoring honors with Brent Eggle, gave Glenn the lead for keeps, 37-35, when he converted a three-point play. He also nailed a triple with 4:33 left to put the Rockets up by five and connected on four straight free throws down the stretch.

Churchill senior guard Will Pendergrass led all scorers with 19, while senior forward Brandon Dakinski added nine.

Glenn was six of 11 from the free throw stripe, while Churchill had three of four.

NORTHVILLE 57, STEVENSON 48: Forwards Aaron Redden and Dave Gregor combined for 47 points Tuesday as the Mustangs defeated host Livonia Stevenson (5-9, 3-5) in a W.L.A.A. encounter.

Northville led 26-18 at halftime before the Spartans cut the deficit to three in the third quarter. But the Mustangs outscored Stevenson 19-13 during the period.

The 6-foot-3 Redden finished with a game-high 25 points, while the 6-6 Gregor added 22.

Junior forward London Heaz scored 14 to pace Stevenson. Junior guard Matt Bernick added 11.

"Northville shot the ball well," Stevenson coach Bill Dyer said. "We got off to a bad start in the third. Then when we got back we'd break down at bad times."

Northville was 10-of-16 from the line, while Stevenson made 10 of 12.

WILLOW RUN 57, WAYNE 54: Gary Johnson's game-high 22 points were enough Tuesday as Wayne Memorial (5-8, 2-8) lost to the host Flyers (6-5, 6-3). Wayne also received 11 points from senior guard Matt Patterson, along with eight points and eight rebounds from senior forward Shannon Jeffers.

HAMTRAC 65, CLARENCEVILLE 54: In a Motro Conference game Tuesday, the host Cosmos (4-9, 3-6) gained the victory against Livonia Clarenceville (4-9, 1-5) behind Aaron Marku's 20 points. Nick Dockery and Shawn Edge added 18 and 15 for Hamtramck.

Senior forward Adam Carpenter scored a game-high 25 points for the Trojans, who trailed 29-23 at intermission and 51-38 after three quarters. Carpenter hit six triples.

Jim Shaw and Scott Wien added 14 and 12 points, respectively.

"We just did a bad job rebounding, we had five guys watching," Clarenceville first-year coach Kevin Murphy said. "On one play Marku grabbed four offensive rebounds."
