Orchard Ridge hosts women's conference

The Womencenter at Oakland Community College's Orchard Ridge Campus will hold its ninth annual women's conference on Saturday, March 31.
 The conference, entitled "A Call to Wholeness: Images of Our Selves," is scheduled from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the OCC Orchard Ridge Campus and is open to the public. It will meet in the campus' d building. The fee is $35 per person and includes the keynote presentation, two sets of workshops and lunch.
 An interactive keynote presentation, "The Self Behind the Mask," by Karen Schurgen, art therapist, will start the day. Following the keynote, there will be choices from workshop topics including life transitions, balancing, health issues, body images, women in relationships, self-defense, self-esteem, stress and relaxation, and organizing your home or office.
 "A Call to Wholeness: Images of Our Selves" is presented by the Womencenter, a college facility that provides educational and supportive resources for area women.
 Pre-registration is advised. For further information and to receive a registration brochure for the conference, or for information on other program offerings, call the Womencenter at 248-522-3642.
 The Orchard Ridge Campus is located at 27055 Orchard Lake Road, just south of I-696 in Farmington Hills.
State rep. offers guide to taxes

Farmington and Farmington Hills residents can get important state tax information in the Michigan Taxpayers Guide offered by state Rep. Andrew Raczkowski.
 The booklet outlines many Michigan laws on property taxes, homestead property tax credits, farmland and open space tax relief, the Single Business Tax and other related subjects. Also included are sample tax forms and a list of phone numbers for assistance.
 Raczkowski has provided free copies to the William Costick Senior Center, and will distribute guides to the three local libraries in Farmington and Farmington Hills.
 Residents can also receive copies by calling Raczkowski toll free at 1-800-864-2108. Requests can be sent to Raczkowski at the State Capitol, P.O. Box 30014, Lansing, MI 48909.
