League meet: Chris Yukonich competes in the butterfly for the Farmington-Harrison team in the WLAA meet.

seeds in the event, just .07 separating their qualifying times. Bubbitz also finished first in the individual medley at 1:57.41. Lynn was second in the 100 free. North's Farber was the other double winner in individual events, taking the butterfly in 52.64.

Canton's only first
Canton had just one first-place finish: Brad Nilson in the 100 backstroke with a state meet-qualifying time of 55.96.

"We swam out of our minds on Thursday," Canton coach Ed Weber said. "People were dropping times all over the place."

"On Saturday, we hung together and took care of business. We did what we came to do, and that was take second."

Salem's other league champs in

"After Thursday, I felt pretty good," said Salem coach Chuck Olson. "Everyone swam extremely well, we placed a lot of guys in the top six."

Salem came back
"Then we came back on Saturday and swam even better. After we won the 200 medley relay, I thought, 'We're on our way.' After that, I was feeling pretty good."

The 200-yard medley relay was the question mark among the Rocks' relays. After winning that, it was almost assured they would sweep all three.

They set a WLAA record in the 400 freestyle relay in 3:16.18. The old record was 3:17.04 by Stevenson in 1992.

That was one of two records set, and they came in the last two events. North Farmington's Adam Farber got the other, winning the 100 breaststroke in 58.47, breaking the mark of Northville's Jeff Steving (59.83) set in 1996.

In all, Salem had six first-place swims, and there were just two events in which it didn't have swimmers in the top three.

The meet's most competitive race was in the 100 free, between two of the premier swimmers: Salem's Eric Lynn and Stevenson's Joe Bubbitz.

Lynn led Bubbitz by nearly a half second after the first 50 yards — the Rocks' Johnson was actually second at that point — but Bubbitz caught Johnson and Lynn with a 24.55 second 50 to tie him for first with Lynn at 47.72, only .30 off the WLAA record. They were the top two
