Teams still needed for Bowl-A-Thon

Five person teams are still needed for Team Farmington Special Olympics 9th Annual Bowl-A-Thon on Saturday, April 7 at Drakeshire Lanes located at 35000 Grand River.

This year, Team Farmington hopes to fill all 80 lanes and raise over $40,000 through the Bowl-A-Thon. The first session of bowlers will start at 10 a.m. and receive bagels, donuts and juice. Pizza and pop will be provided for the second session beginning at 1 p.m. Each team will be comprised of five bowlers representing local businesses, organizations and individuals. Team Farmington is asking each team to raise a minimum of $500. All proceeds from the Bowl-A-Thon will be used to fund Team Farmington Special Olympics.

Teams and individual bowlers are asked to call and sign up prior to the Bowl-A-Thon. Those who can't bowl, can make a monetary contribution.

Team Farmington is a year-round sports training and educational program open to all athletes with mental impairments who are or have been involved in the Special Education programs run by the Farmington School District or who reside in the district. Students from many surrounding school districts are also involved in these programs.

More than 175 athletes and over 50 volunteer coaches currently participate in Team Farmington's 13 sports categories. Its growth is based on support from the community, parents and schools. Team Farmington's annual operating budget is $50,000, and must be raised through private donations and proceeds from the Bowl-A-Thon.

To sign up to bowl, make a donation or get additional information about the 9th Annual Bowl-A-Thon, please call Andrea Drwik at 888-5021.
