one of our strengths," Afferbaugh said. "We're really strong in the pole vault, high jump and long jump. Once we gain experience in the throwing events, I think we'll be OK there, too."
 Farmington lost quality hurdlers Ben Lukas and Jeff Frederick, but Moore and Martin will attempt to take up the slack.
 Sophomore Danny Preston and Mortens are 400 runners, and Ryan Kiblawi, Chris McDoniel and Martin lead a strong class of sophomores in the 800.
 "Our goal is always to win the city meet and the division, and I think we have a great opportunity to do both," Afferbaugh said. "Hopefully, we'll send a bunch of guys to the state meet as well."

We don't want to brag...

"I will tell everyone I know to have their hospital care at Huron Valley-Sinai Hospital."

We'd rather let our customers do it for us.

Of course we're going to tell you good things about our facilities and services, which we've expanded to provide even better care to our growing community. But we think the opinions of people who have used our services are the most important.

Plenty of others in the community obviously agree, because Huron Valley-Sinai Hospital earned the highest customer satisfaction scores in the area as measured by Press-Scan national surveys of Southeastern Michigan peer hospitals.
