Thempson bolted out of the penalty box, controlled a pass from winger Karl Stewart at mid-lee, and outskated two Spifire defensemen before wristing the puck past Windsor goalio Michael Leighton.

The spectacular goal was not only the difference-maker in the Whalors' 4-3 victory — it also lifted a heavy burden off the collective shoulders of his teammates going into tonight's Game Two at Windsor Ice Arena.

Thompson's goal was surprising for two reasons. First, the six-foot, 170-pound center is not known for his scoring the failed to record a point in the first-round series). Second, the dazing game-winner came on his first shift of the night.

"I sent Bryan to the box to serve Preston Mizzi's penalty," DeBoer said. Mizzi land been ejected from the game after getting a 10-minute game-misconduct penalty. "He did a great job of popping out of the box and skating hard to get the conditions of the same of the conditions of the conditions of the same of the conditions of the same of the conditions of the condit
