shot." Russell said, "For the rest of the second half, we sustained pressure on their net, but Williams and her defense played admirably." With 1:20 left in the game, Kelly Hogan fired a hard cross from the right flank

Soccer from page B1

The unranked Falcons had a big win Wednesday, knocking off vis-iting and No. 8-rated (Division II) Grosse Pointe North, 1-0. Rose scored the goal on a header midway in the first half. DeDomenico chipped the ball into the box, and the opposing goalie failed to handie the shot by Rose. Freshman goalie Katie Johnson had a half dozen key saves for Farmington while earning her first shutout. She made 10 stops alto-ecther.

Farmington while earming her first shutout. She made 10 stops alto-gether. Rose, DeDomenico, Julie Gottlicher and Beth Kolacki controlled the midfield and gave the Falcons some much-sought-after offense. "Even though we're not scoring a lot, we're getting a lot of chances and taking pressure off the defense, "Montgomery said. "It was a pretty good battle between two good teams in the mid-field. It was a very intense game. Neither team wanted to give in. It was hard fought." It was the first time Farmington has beaten GP North. The Fal-cons lost 1-0 last year, giving up a goal in the final two minutes, and the teams played to a scoreless ite two years ago. "Shanna Barkume did a good job playing sweeper," Montgomery said. "Catherine Brouillette had n lot of good airs; she headed the ball out quite a bit. Molly Jud and Erin DeRoo did a good job mark-ing players and playing defense."

N. FARMINOTON 2, REDFORD UNION 0: The visiting Raiders had difficulty getting the ball past Panthors goale Tara Williems, but they managed to do that twice for a non-largue victory Wednesday. "We poured in 25 shots, but their keeper played very well," North coach Tim Rus-soll said. "Even on pointblank, hard shots, she gave up no rebounds." Following a scoreless first half. Catherine Munaco received a pass from Meghan Callahan, dirbbled inside from the left sideline and fired a 25-yard shot into the unoner, righthand conter of the net.

right-hand corner of the net "It was a great through-ball assist, followed by a controlled move and a beautiful

Hawks begin baseball season with pair of shutout victories

.....

After two baseball games in the new season, its Farmington The Hawks whipped host Livo-nia Clarenceville for their second win Friday, 16-0. Rob Whipple and Tim Doig schutout. Whipple wards the second first three and got the win, strik-ing out size and walking none. Dig struck out two. Harrison had 14 hits. Kevin Zerbo was 4-for-4 with four sin-Zeles and two RBI. Doig 3-for-4 with a triple, two singles and size BII and Drew Stanton 2-for-3 with a home run and three RBI. The Hawks made their season the but with a 14-0, trise many season and the season when we get into league play five-inning rout of visiting the season was a season when we get into league play five-inning rout of visiting the season was a season the season th

Buy crafts online at craftsonline.com

er. Despits the play of Konhaim, the Hawks (1-1) had the ball on the opposing side of the field for half the game, according to Stickland. "We dominated that area for 30 minutes in the first half and the same in the sec end," Stickland sald, "We had opportunities to score and missed three open-ncl player.

With five minutes left in the game, Abby Adams scored the Harrison goal with assists by Arianna Sundick and Danielle Strickland.