

Buddy's helps Capuchins

Buddy's Pizza would like to sell pizza lovers "A Slice for Life" for the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and in turn, the Capuchins may save a life. The benefit takes place at all Buddy's locations on Monday, April 23 from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Buddy's will host the 25th annual "A Slice for Life" benefit for the Capuchin Soup Kitchen. This event is an easy way to help raise money for the soup kitchen. During 25 years Buddy's Pizza has raised over $1 million for this charity.

Tickets are sold at the restaurant with a portion of the proceeds donated to the soup kitchen. Cost is $10 for adults, $8 for seniors and $5 for children 10 and under. Each ticket includes all you can eat pizza with two toppings and a choice of garden, antipasto or Greek salad.

There is a Buddy's Pizza on Northwestern Highway in Farmington Hills.

The Capuchin Soup Kitchen has provided emergency assistance for those in need for over 70 years. It serves over 2,500 hot meals to Detroit's needy people daily. It receives no government funds and relies entirely on donations.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

On Sunday, April 22 "The 5th Michigan Regiment Band" will help lead worship with their music at the 8:45 a.m. and 11 a.m. worship services at First Presbyterian Church. "The 5th Michigan Regiment Band" was once known as the "5th Michigan Infantry Band." For 108 years, from 1865 - 1973, it was just a memory. Then as a State of Michigan Bicentennial project it was recreated in the form of the Fifth Michigan Regiment

Band. In keeping with the authenticity of the Civil War "field" regimental bands, the present band consists of musicians, color guard, and support personnel. The band's repertoire of the 1860's includes marches, polkas, schottisches, waltzes, and songs arranged for the group by Lt. Col. Guy Smith, conductor. The present band plays on antique and replica Civil War instruments at reenactments, concerts, parades, festivals and other special events. Visitors are welcome. The church is located at the northwest corner of Eleven Mile and Farmington Roads. For more information call the church office at 474-6170.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST

Farmington First United Methodist Church on Grand River east of Farmington Road has Sunday services at 9:30 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. On April 26-27, the United Methodist Women will have a rummage sale. Rummage sale times are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Thursday and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday. Useful household items and clothing at bargain prices.

On Sunday, April 29, the Logos Youth Choir presents

"Beauty and the Feast" the old testament story of Esther's courage and faith. There will be a potluck dinner at 12:15 following the second service. The president of International Child Care USA will speak and show slides about the Grace Children's Hospital in Haiti whose future is important to First United Methodist of Farmington.

ST. ALEXANDER

St. Alexander, 27835 Shawassee, between Inkster and Middlebelt, will host a Family Hoedown April 28 from 5:15 - 9 p.m. Enjoy all-you-can-eat dinner of chicken and all the fixins including dessert and beverage. Line Dancing will follow dinner. Cost is $7 for Adults, $4 for children (3-12). Proceeds will benefit the Youth Ministry Summer Mission Trip to West Virginia. Call 474-6748.

Health Fair: May 6. Free. There will be blood pressure screenings, health information, hands-on learning opportunities and more. 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

ORCHARD UNITED METHODIST

Orchard United Methodist Church, 30450 Farmington Rd., annual Spring Rummage Sale on Friday and Saturday, May 18-19, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday; 9 a.m. to noon Saturday. Farmington Rd. between Thirteen and Fourteen Mile. For more information, call 626-3820.

Recognition breakfast set for May 9

Farmington Youth Assistance will present its 16th annual Youth Recognition Breakfast on Wednesday, May 9.

The breakfast, slated from 7:15-9 a.m., will be in the Costick Activities Center in the Shannon room. This is the FYA's way to honor young people who have contributed volunteer service within the community.

Reservations must be made by May 1. Call 489-3434.

Angels' Place spring fling

Friends of Angels' Place will hold the annual Spring Fling and Auction on Friday, May 11, at 8 p.m. at the Birmingham Country Club, 1760 Saxon Drive in Birmingham.

The evening will include music, food, cocktails and a silent auction featuring sports memorabilia, game tickets, golf packages and more. John Keating, on-air personality, Fox Sports Net, will emcee the event.

Bridget and Tom MacLean and Jane and David Buckley of West Bloomfield are event chairs. Tickets are $40 per person or $75 per couple. Proceeds from the Spring Fling benefit Angels' Place, a nonprofit organization providing Christian homes and support services for adults with developmental disabilities.

For more information, call 350-2203 or info@angelsplace.com by May 8.

Zonta fashion show helps First Step

Parisian in Laurel Park will host the 7th annual "Stepping Out In Style" fashion show presented by Zonta Club of Farmington/Novi to benefit First Step Project Against Domestic Violence on Sunday, May 20.

From 6-9 p.m., the store will be open only for fashion show attendees, who will enjoy food from several area restaurants stationed throughout the store, entertainment, special demonstrations, and a 15-percent discount on all purchases during the evening with the exception of certain designer items such as Coach. In addition it's a chance to view the latest fashions.
