

POLICE CALLS

The following incidents were recently reported to the Farmington Hills Police Department.

BREAK-INS

Police are investigating the break-ins of six businesses in the 30500 block of Northwestern Highway, sometime between late Friday night and early Saturday morning.

Entry was gained mostly by breaking office windows.

At one of the businesses, a Sony portable disc/cassette player valued at approximately $100 was stolen. Four Lexmark laser printers, worth about $200 each, were taken but later recovered, found on a sidewalk near the back door.

VANDALISM

A resident in the River Pine Condos, 35000 block of Knollwood, was awakened about 3:30 a.m. Saturday to a loud noise sounding like a motorist driving into her residence. The next morning, the woman discovered that a 12-to-14-foot-tall tree had been run over, along with a nearby stop sign and street sign. About $800 in damage was done to the tree.

Four car tires were slashed in the 31700 block of Nine Mile, sometime on Saturday or Sunday. The amount of damage was estimated at $300.

GOLF CLUBS STOLEN

An Ohio man visiting his father, who resides in the 37300 block of Tina Drive, reported that his bag of golf clubs was stolen from the garage sometime between 11 a.m. Friday and 11 a.m. Saturday.

According to police reports, the black golf bag is valued at about $150. Listed stolen clubs included three S.O.T.A. irons, valued at $600; one Trusty Rusty sand wedge, valued at $100; one Callaway three-wood, valued at $200; one Ping putter, valued at $75 and nine golf balls worth an estimated $25.

DRUNKEN DRIVING

Police arrested a 39-year-old Waterford woman for drunken driving after she was stopped near Haggerty-Nine Mile roads about 3 a.m. Sunday.

The woman struggled with field sobriety tests and had a blood/alcohol level of about .18.

TV STOLEN

About 9:15 a.m. Sunday, a 25-inch Sharp color television set was missing from the Park Motel, 30891 Grand River. The TV is valued at about $200.

There were no signs of forced entry.

HOME INVASION

An 80-year-old Botsford Commons resident reported her residence was broken into and jewelry stolen sometime between 4-10 p.m. Sunday.

She returned home to find damage to the door jam and upon entering her residence discovered jewelry missing from the top drawer of the jewelry box in the master bedroom. Among items apparently missing: a gold women's diamond ring, with rubies, valued at about $2,000; black coral beads, $7,500; a gold rope chain, $400; a Topaz pendant, valued at about $200; and a gold necklace, $100.

New recruits: Farmington Hills Fire Chief Rich Marinucci spoke to a group of men and women interested in becoming paid on-call firefighters Monday night. Assistant to the Chief Robert Rebtov is in the foreground.
