Touring film and fashion event comes to
Great Lakes Crossing in Auburn Hills

Comcast and American Movie Classics have teamed up to bring Fashion In Film-On Tour to Great Lakes Crossing in Auburn Hills.

Slated for May 5, the live stage event will be hosted by Academy Award-winning actress Shirley Jones.

Featuring re-creations of costumes worn in Hollywood, the event brings to life the untold stories behind classic American movies.

The live fashion show incorporates film footage, photographs and stories about the costumes that have mesmerized movie-goers and influenced fashion for more than half a century.

Comcast and AMC's Fashion In Film-On Tour is open to the public and free of charge.

Shows will be held at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.

Inspired by AMC's original programming, AMC's Fashion In Film-On Tour is traveling to 12 cities in the country during March, April and May.

Among the film costumes featured in the multi-media stage presentation are those made famous by Grace Kelly in Rear Window, Clark Gable in It Happened One Night, Deborah Kerr in The King & I, Kim Novak in Alfred Hitchcock's Vertigo and Marilyn Monroe in How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying.

AMC's Fashion In Film-On Tour also provides the opportunity for visitors to view some of the actual dresses worn by Hollywood leading ladies at past Oscar ceremonies and other high-profile events. Among the fashions on display at the mall will be dresses worn to Academy Awards presentations by Psycho star Janet Leigh in 1961, The English Patient star Kristin Scott Thomas in 1997 and Titanic star Kate Winslet in 1998.

In addition, the display includes a dress originally designed for Marlene Dietrich to wear in the film The Lady Is Willing. The dress was subsequently given to Jamie Lee Curtis by Dietrich's grandson.

Bring your Comcast cable bill and receive two free movie passes.

Additionally, Those attending performances are invited to videotape entries for AMC's Great Movies and the Stories Behind Them.
