Disability abuse awareness conference offered

The Macomb-Oakland Regional Center is hosting a conference on sexual abuse of people with disabilities.

According to David Hingsburger, a internationally-known expert in field, people with disabilities are often the most sexually victimized segment of our society. The May 10 conference is for consumers, family members, care givers, professionals who support people with disabilities and others.

Hingsburger is the author of two books, and a two-hour training package, The Ethics of Touch, which examines consumer/provider relationships. The symposium will be held from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the San Marino Club, 1685 East Big Beaver Road in Troy.

The cost of the conference is $80 per person.

A continental breakfast and lunch are included in the cost of the conference.

Tribute hosts pre-party for Garden Party benefit

BY MARY RODRIGUE
STAFF WRITER

Farmington Hills' highly acclaimed Tribute restaurant will play host to a pre-party for the 14th annual Garden Party benefit for the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center the first weekend in June.

On Saturday, June 2, supporters of the Farmington Hills center for infants, youths and families in crisis in southeast Michigan will have the opportunity to taste menu samplings from some of the finest chefs in America.

"(Tribute) maitre d' Mickey Bakat is bringing in five international chefs to cook - a few of them will remain for the Garden Party on Sunday to sign copies of their books," said Rebecca Moss, community relations coordinator for the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center.

Tickets to this event are $500, with proceeds to the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center. A portion of the cost will be tax deductible. Already half of the 110 tickets have been sold, according to Moss. For more information, call 626-7627, Ext. 3118.
