Juried show: 2001 High School Student Awards in the three-dimensional category are Justin Moore (3rd place), Lindsay Middlekauff (2nd place) and Oren Myers (1st place). Visitors to the Farmington Festival of Arts can view their entries through Sunday at the Costick Center in Farmington Hills.

Student winners: 2001 High School Student Awards in the two-dimensional category went to Abbey Robinson (3rd place), Jamie Solomon (2nd place) and Sam Trapchak (1st place).

Tiny dancer: St. Fabian student Whitney Lott exhibited a graceful wire sculpture in the student division. A myriad of art produced by local students is on display during the festival.

MOMS host editor

Susan DeMaggio, editor of Metro Parent magazine, will be presenting and passing out the supplemental publication "Going Places" at the MOMS Club of Farmington Hills meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday, May 16.

The meeting is held at the First Presbyterian Church in Farmington Hills. "Going Places" is a guide for families looking for fun ways to fill summer. It lists more than 500 things to do in the area.

The MOMS Club is an international support group for moms who stay home with their children, including those who have home-based businesses or who work part-time but are with their children during the day. The group offers a wide range of activities, including special programs for moms, playgroups for kids and get-togethers for the whole family. The MOMS Club also performs service projects benefiting less fortunate children in the community.

Children are welcome at all MOMS Club activities. The Farmington Hills MOMS Club welcomes all at-home dads as well. For more information, call Robyn Flam at (248) 661-3603.

Breastfeeding classes offered

The Oakland County Health Division is sponsoring a breastfeeding support series. Sessions, which are taught by Public Health Nurses, are held at the Health Division's West Office, 1010 E. West Maple Road, Walled Lake, one block east of Pontiac Trail.

Information covered includes pumping, solving common problems associated with breastfeeding, taking care of mom, growth and development of the breastfeeding infant including: growth spurts, starting solids, and weaning.

Information is targeted to participants involved in the first year of breastfeeding. For more information or to register, call (248) 925-3341.

Garden party to benefit Sarah Fisher Center

Fancy food, wine and lively entertainment will be the order of the day at the 14th annual Garden Party benefit for the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center on Sunday, June 3, from 1 to 6 p.m. on the center grounds.

Presented by Ford Motor Co., the party also includes a silent and live auction of fine wines and many other items.

It is the biggest fund-raiser of the year for the center, which helps infants, youths and families in crisis in southeast Michigan. This year's goal is $300,000, which is $25,000 more than the amount pulled in from last year's June gala.

Huel Perkins, FOX2-TV anchorman, and Paul W. Smith,

WJR-AM radio personality, will share master of ceremony honors. Professional auctioneer Dave Levy of Levy and Associates will run the live auction.

Guests will stroll the grounds of the center, where three tents — one each for appetizers, entrees and desserts — will be erected and from which restaurateurs from 50 of the metro areas best establishments will offer their specialties, along with fine wines.

Participating restaurants include Alban's, Andiamo West, Beach Grill, Beans & Cornbread, Big Daddy's Parthenon, Big Rock Chop House, Blue Goose, Breadwinner Bakery, Cadillac Coffee Co., Capital Grille, Carvers Steak & Chops, Charley's Crab, Coffee Express, Cuisino, and Diamond Jim Brady's.

Offering cuisine

Also offering up cuisine will be Emily's, Epoch events, Ernesto's, Essence, Five Lakes Grill, Forte, Gayle's Chocolate, Giovanni's, Golden Mushroom, Jalapeno Pete's, the Lark, LeMuro, Lepanto, Lily's Seafood, and McCormick & Schmicks.

Rounding out the lineup are the Michigan Star Clipper dinner train, Midtown Cafe, Mon Jin Lau, More's, P.F. Chang's, Cafe Cortina, Ristorante di Modesta, Savino Sorbet, Sweet Lorraine's, Tom's Oyster Bar, Too

Chez, Townsend Hotel's Rugby Grill, the Whitney, and Wood-Ruff's Supper Club.

Auction items will include trips, collectibles, sports memorabilia and rare wines.

The Trinidad Tripoli Steel Band will perform throughout the afternoon.

For tickets or more information, call the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center at 626-7527, Ext. 3118. Tickets are $150 per person. Patron and benefactor packages are available. The center is at Inkster and Twelve Mile roads in Farmington Hills. The St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center provides comprehensive services to more than 1,000 clients annually.

American Cancer Society Discovery shops need jewelry

The American Cancer Society's Discovery Shops will host a Jewelry Extravaganza in all metro Detroit area shops from Thursday, May 3, to Saturday, May 5. This annual sales event features fine and costume jewelry donated by residents in helping further the fight against cancer. Donations are still needed. All donations are tax deductible and proceeds help fund cancer research and local programs and services of the American Cancer Society. Call the American Cancer Society at (248) 557-5353.
