stopper and sneaking the ball past the Harrison keeper.

"As a team, we were extremely flat for about 50 to 60 minutes of the game," North coach Tim Russell said. "However, we stepped up our intensity in the final minutes."

"Our defensive standouts included Ashley Lynch who did a great job winning balls sent forward by Harrison. She also did a great job marking Danielle Strickland throughout the game."

"Joyce Chung was all over the field, defensively and offensively, playing her predictably, solid game. Michele Boothroyd was very solid at sweeper, providing stability at the back of our defense."

"Also, our forwards and mids, said, "I think we dominated quite a bit in the first half and were still getting some opportunities."

"We decided to pick it up a notch instead of watching balls go across the net. Everybody was pushing up and playing offensively a lot more."

Kaitlyn Risk (from Angle Trudeau) gave Mercy a 2-0 lead in the second half, but Divine Child narrowed the gap to one goal.

Trudeau (from Melissa Heger) made it 3-1 before the Falcons trimmed the margin again. Heger added an unassisted insurance goal.

Christy Argenta assisted on the Risk goal. Mercy was 5-2 in the league and 5-3-1 overall going into a Wednesday game with Bishop Foley.

Mercy goalkeeper Monisha Barkowsky made five saves, and Keely McCourt had two while playing the latter part of the game.

"We've been dominating play and working the ball around well," MacLocco said. "We just struggled to score goals the last few games. We're finally turning it on."

NORTHVILLE 6, FARMINGTON 3: Lindsey Durne and Loriso Fill scored two goals apiece Monday as the host Mustangs, who are ranked No. 8 in Division I, beat the Falcons in a crossover game.

Northville led 5-0 at halftime. Erica Rose scored for the Falcons, who were 2-2 in the WLLA and 6-3 overall prior to playing another game Wednesday. "In the second half, we stepped up our play and played pretty well," Farmington coach Steve Montgomery said. "Northville is a good team. They know what to do with the ball. They have a lot of talent and speed."

"We were disappointed. We came out kind of sluggish, for us. Against a team like that, you'd better come ready to play from the get-go; they're for real."

Maggie Ossola and Lindsey Miglio scored the other goals for the Mustangs, who lead the WLLA Western Division.

"By the score, it doesn't seem that we're a very good team," Montgomery said. "We just started out slow, and you can't do that."

"We're still going to win a lot of games. I still expect to win 12 games, which would be good."

Farmington Unified wins league contest

Farmington Unified defeated Livonia Churchill in a battle between two of the better Western Lakes Activities Association girls golf teams Monday, 177-184.

Karolyn Knutson fired her best round as a high school player, shooting 41 at Glen Oaks Golf Course to lead the Eagles. Churchill's Kelly Parzuchowski tied Knutson for medalist honors, also reporting a 41.

Kelly Raymond (42) and Sarah Laird (44) posted their best scores of the season for Farmington in support of Knutson's effort.

Christy Dwyer rounded out the Farmington contingent with a 60. Gina Polce shot 45, Heidi Aittama and Katy Reek 49 apiece for the Chargers.

"We faced a tough team that we had just read about" (in another newspaper), and the girls met the challenge really well," Eagles coach Ann Marie Sopha said.

Farmington is 3-1 in WLLA matches and 4-2 overall.

MERCY 184, REGINA 201: Farmington Hills Mercy was 4-0 in Catholic League matches following its victory over host Harper Woods Regina Monday.

Erin Borowiec shot 44 at Gowan Country Club in Mount Clemens to lead the Marlins, who improved to 6-0 overall.

Christina Cibrario had a 45, Jackie Shilney 46, Katie Dinsmore and Monica Pilzer 49 each.

Regina's Jessie Artymovich led her team with a 43; Amy Osterman shot 50, Rose Pochmara 52 and Sara Naplewock 56. The Marlins won the first Mercy invitational Saturday at St. John's Golf Course in Plymouth by eight strokes over Coldwater, 355-363.

Livonia Churchill shot 379, Ann Arbor pioneer 401, Regina 417 and Livonia Ladywood 420.

Borowiec was the medalist with an 18-hole score of 75. Kim Waryniec tied for fifth place (90); Pilzer was ninth (93) and Cibrario 12th (97).

"I was pleased the way the girls played, considering they played 18 holes the day before," Mercy coach Vicky Kowalski said.

"The Coldwater coach said, 'Your fifth and sixth girls (Waryniec and Pilzer) are going to win the tournament for you,' and they did."

"That's why it was a team effort. We sent six out there and needed four girls to have a good day."

The Marlins were third in the Brighton Invitational Friday at Oak Pointe, Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook won it with a 343; Swartz Creek shot 347 and Mercy 349.

Borowiec tied for medalist honors with Mandy McConnell of Grand Blanc, Jennifer Johnson of Okemos and Jenny Long of Swartz Creek. All shot 77.

Cibrario tied for 13th (87) and Maureen Mawen for 15th (89); Dinsmore shot 96 to complete the team score.

"Oak Pointe is a course (Borowiec) knows, and she thought she could have gone even lower," Kowalski said.

"Teamwise, I honestly think we can be in the low 340s come state tournament time and can do well. In all the tournaments we've been going to, no team in Division I has finished ahead of us."

Mercy also sent a team of juniors to Coldwater for a tournament Friday. The Marlins were 11th out of 22 teams with a 422 score.

Waryniec tied for 11th (94), which was a good finish on a tough course at Coldwater Country Club, according to Kowalski.
