A MOTHER'S LOVE
I have often wondered why there is such a bond between a mother and her child. A mother's love is special in so many ways that nothing can compare with the unique mother/child relationship. Perhaps the loving attachment between a mother and child is due to the wonderful pregnancy experience; for nine months, two people are living as one. Perhaps that bond is formed at birth, when a child seems to know instinctively who his mother is and who will care for it. The amazing thing about motherhood is that it makes no difference if a mother has one child or ten, they are all equally loved in a special way. From the days of baby bottles and changing diapers, to school plays and graduations, a mother is fervently loyal and loving to her child. Our Lord Jesus had a wonderful Mother, who was chosen especially for Him by our Heavenly Father. And, our Heavenly Father also chose our mothers for us. A loving and compassionate mother is truly a blessing from God.
As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
K.J.V. Isaiah 66:13
