

GIRLS GOLF

Marlins best team in Pinckney Invite

Farmington Hills Mercy won the Pinckney Invitational, a two-team, best-ball tournament, Monday by two strokes over Livonia Churchill, 164-166, and by four over third-place Farmington Unified, which had 168.

Each school entered three two-person teams and counted the best team scores. Mercy senior Maureen McFawn and freshman Angela Leon combined for an 80 total, and sophomore Christina Cibrario and junior Carrie Tashjian had an 84.

Erin Borowiec didn't compete for the Marlins, because she was taking an advanced placement English exam. Furthermore, players are limited to 18 playing dates.

Mercy sent three varsity and three JV players to Pinckney.

"Girls fight to go to this tournament, because it's a lot of fun," Mercy coach Vicki Kowalski said. "You don't have to feel bad if you have a bad hole, because you can count on your teammate to get the score on that hole."

"Coach Dan Horgan and the Mercy girls were going to leave when they were done, because Katie (Diantha) Richard at St. Johns n't feel well. Dan said, 'No, we have to stay; I think we're going to win it.'"

Farmington's top team was Sarah Laird and Kelly Raymond with an 82 total; Chrissy Dwyer and Brittany Nucitelli combined for an 86; Karolyn Knutson and Jen Barrick 93.

In a two-day tournament Friday and Saturday in Traverse City, Mercy was fourth with a 683 total.

The top four teams were within 10 strokes of each other. Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook-Kingswood had a 683, Grassie Ile 686 and Traverse City Central 687.

Borowiec shot 77 Friday, Cibrario 86, Jackie Shinnery 87 (her best of the year) and Kim Waryniewicz 85. The Marlins (345) were third behind Cranbrook (340) and Traverse City (344).

Borowiec shot 71 Saturday, making her the medalist for the second year in a row. She shot 36, 36 and 35 on the last three nines after opening with a 41.

But Mercy dropped to fifth place with a 348 Saturday. Cibrario and Waryniewicz shot 91, Shinnery and Monica Pitzer 85.

Based on the tournament results, Kowalski expected Mercy to be ranked No. 2 in Division I behind TCC, but the rankings wouldn't take into account the fact Mercy was without McFawn.

McFawn attended the prom and didn't make the trip, but her contribution would have lowered the Mercy team score considerably, according to Kowalski.

The Marlins won their final Catholic League match Monday, 200-275, over Ann Arbor, because Katie (Diantha) Richard at St. Johns n't feel well. Dan said, 'No, we have to stay; I think we're going to win it.'"

North pitcher tosses no-hit shutout

SOFTBALL

Beth Danielewicz pitched a no-hitter in the first game of a softball doubleheader Monday, leading North Farmington to a 6-0 win over visiting Farmington.

The Raiders won the second game, too, but had a little more trouble putting away the Falcons. They needed nine innings to earn a 6-3 victory.

North is 4-1 in the Lakes Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association and 12-5 overall. Farmington is 1-5 and 3-13.

Danielewicz struck out eight and didn't walk a batter in the first game. Kelsey Guisbert pitched a good game for the Falcons, allowing just five hits and three walks while striking out six.

Alyssa Stanbridge hit a two-run double for North, and Lindsey Taub was 2-for-3 with a run-scoring double. Emily Jaffe drove in another run with a single.

The Raiders managed to overcome four errors while the Falcons committed two.

In the nighttime, North, the visiting team in a makeup game, broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the top of the ninth inning.

With Danielewicz on third base after a hit and two sacrifices, Staci Russell had an RBI single. A hit by Jehan Hindu and a walk to Taub loaded the bases for Jasmine King, who hit a two-run single.

Earlier in the game, Farmington scored two runs on an out-field error and tied the score, 2-2.

North's Christina Colombo stole home plate in the seventh inning, but Amy Paquette tied it in the bottom half on two errors and a sacrifice.

The Raiders loaded the bases with no outs in the eighth, but a double play took away any momentum they had in that inning.

Danielewicz struck out 10 and walked one but allowed nine hits. North, which made five errors, had 11 hits off Guisbert, who walked six and fanned five.

Colombo was 3-for-5, had three stolen bases and scored two runs; Danielewicz and Hindu were 2-for-4, and Jaffe and Russell had RBI singles.

Danielle Lewis and Adrienne Shaw had two hits apiece to lead the Falcons.

"I think Farmington played extremely well," North coach Dave Brubaker said. "That's a credit to the coach (Kristen Harmanen) over there. She has her girls ready to play. They were enthusiastic and gave a very good performance."

MERCY 15-4, MARIAN 2-3: Megan Feduk was the winning pitcher in both games Tuesday as Farmington Hills Mercy moved closer to clinching the Catholic League Central Division title.

The doubleheader sweep of host Birmingham Marian ended the Marlins' 8-2 in the division and 20-5 overall.

Feduk pitched a complete game in the opener, striking out eight while scattering four hits. She didn't walk a batter in 10 total innings.

Mercy had 15 hits in the first game. Anna Schneider and Holly Van Cleave were 3-for-5 with two and three RBI, respectively. Rachel Del Conno had two hits, including a two-run triple, and four RBI.

Molly O'Malley pitched four innings of the second game but was replaced by Feduk with the score tied, 1-1.

Feduk allowed no hits and struck out five over the final three innings. Marian had four hits off O'Malley, who walked none.

Carly Tracy went 2-for-4 with two RBI and Lindsey Feduk 2-for-3 to lead Mercy's nine-hit attack. Theresa Lawrence also had a hit and an RBI.

CHURCHILL & HARRISON: Livonia Churchill leads from its softball losses and goes on.

The Chargers rebounded from a pair of weekend tournament defeats at Monroe on Monday by running way from Farmington Hills, 8-0, in a Western Lakes Activities Association game.

Megan Miskal gave up just one hit — a leadoff single by Kelly Taylor in the seventh — while striking out 14 and walking just one.

Kristin Schrock took the loss for host Harrison, although she gave up just five hits and struck out 11. She was hurt by seven walks.

Sarah Carter hit a three-run home run in the third, when Churchill (14-3, 6-0) scored four times to take a 5-0 lead. Carly George had two RBI.

CLARENCEVILLE 18, HAWTHORNE 3: Amy Schiffman scattered four hits, walked one and struck out two Monday to earn the win for the Trojans.

Whitney Kubera had three hits, including a double and a triple, to drive in three runs.

Nicole Martin had two hits, one a double, and Jenni Swider drove in two runs.

FRANKLIN & FARMINGTON 3: The Patriots started out the Plymouth Salem tournament on Saturday by getting a strong pitching performance from Nikki Zabkiewicz.

Zabkiewicz scattered four hits, didn't walk a batter and struck out four. Just one of the runs she allowed was earned.

Jenae O'Annunzio had a two-run single for Franklin; Stephanie Smith had two singles plus an RBI, and Dayne Reid had an RBI single.

THURSTON 12, CLARENCEVILLE 3: Jessica Walker (3-2) hurled a four-hitter and struck out seven for the win in the Redford Thurston tournament semifinal game on Saturday.

Irene Brown was 1-for-2 with two RBI, Julie Garbacz had an RBI double, Courtney Kruse had two RBI, Walker had one RBI and Danielle Stamper was 2-for-2 with an RBI.

Nicole Martin, Jenni Swider, Jen Kerr and Susie Shaffner all singled for the Trojans. Martin took the loss.

CLARENCEVILLE 10, ST. ADATHA 0: Amy Schiffman hurled a one-hitter and struck out seven Saturday in earning the win for Clarenceville in the Redford Thurston tournament consolation game.

Nicole Martin had a pair of hits and two RBI in the five-inning game, while Jenni Swider had an RBI double. Amanda Nelson took the loss for the Aggies, but did have her team's only hit.

Schiffman struck out seven and didn't walk a batter.

NORTHSTAR TOURNAMENT: North Farmington won three of five games Saturday and Sunday in a 48-team tournament hosted by Ortonville-Brandon, which beat Waterford Kettering, 3-1, in the championship game, at Liberty Park in Sterling Heights.

The Raiders opened with a 7-1 win over Cheboygan. Danielewicz walked seven hits and one walk. Pinch-hitter Lauren Zakalik hit a bases-loaded triple for North. Russell was 2-for-3 with one RBI.

North made three errors and Lincoln Park had nine hits off Danielewicz in a 4-0 win over North, which had just three hits, one being a triple by Danielewicz.

The Raiders rebounded with a 12-0 defeat of Oxford as Danielewicz pitched a two-hitter and struck out eight.

Colombo, King, Jaffe and Danielewicz had two hits apiece. Colombo knocked in three runs; King, Jaffe and Stanbridge had two RBI each.

On Sunday, North defeated Troy, 5-0. Danielewicz, who tossed a three-hitter, and Russell were 2-for-4; Alyssa Melvin's two hits included a solo homer.

The Raiders ended with an 8-2 loss to Richmond. Colombo pitched a complete game, and Russell hit a two-run triple.
