Canton's unsung hero was performer who started the season throwing the shot put 37 feet. Canton carned a second as Moton improved his previous best of 49-10 to 51-14.

"Our shot putters are amazing

just getting better and better.
'Ye tried to recruit Eric for four years, and this is the first year hes thrown for us. I'm thankful
he came out."

Meanwhile, CC and Harrison

Meanwhile, CC and Harrison each won four events.

CC's 6,400-meter relay squad consisting of brothers Dan and John Krawiec, Ryan Lowry and Matt Daly broke a 16-year record with a time of 18:05. The previous mark of 18:09 was set by CC in 1985.

"That was a tough record to break," CC Coech Tony Magni said. "But those kids worked hard for it and they wanted it." CC junior Tom Grant was one of the top individuals in the meet. He won the 110-meter hurdles comfortably in 15 seconds and teamed with Chris Meagher, Alex Carravallah and Mike Siwicki for a victory in the shuttle hurdle relay, Grant also had the best jump in the long jump (20-5) as CC took second.

"Tom is just learning to hurdle, but the's very quick and agile." Magni said. "He gets over the hurdles neited, with the wist over the hurdles neited, but the strong an CC was in the distance races, the Shamrock tallied an uncharacteristic four points in the throwing events. They only scored 1/s points in five of the sprint races and did not field a pole vault team.

"We knew going in we had to have points in the field events," Magni said. "The hardest thing to do is secore in the sprints unless you're very, very good.

"But overall I thought everybody ran as fast as they could in the relays.

Despite scoring just two points in the field events, Harrison wan three of the final four relays.

The Hawks captured the 400, 800 and 1,600 relays, slong with the sprint medley.

Junior Agim Shabaj was Harrison's workhorse, figuring in three firsts. He also finished third in the open 100 as Redford Bishop Borgess sophomero Darryl Anglin nipped Livonia Glarenceville junior Tim Shaw at the tape in 11.0.

"Agim has great range and is one of the best sprinters in the state, because he can go anywhere from the 100 to the 400."

"Agim has great range and is one of the best sprinters in the state, because he has great pride,"

Harrison coach John Reed said.
"He's tough. He wants to do well because he has great pride,"

Harrison's 1,600 relay team of Furman Tate, Brian Coats, Terrill Mayberry and Shabaj, was elocked in a school record 32.5.6.

"The last three or four years we've really focused on that event and that's been a point of pride," Reed said. "We had some great times for the regional, and I thought to the track we did all we could. We finished the meet on a high note.

"Two of our pole vaulters no heighted who have gone 10-6, and that cost us a lot of points.
