was pretty good," Herrington said.

"Our theme was to stay after it, because the games we lost we got ahead and then stopped scoring and teams came back on us."

After going down in order in the second inning, the Hawks stayed after it with additional runs in three of the next four innings.

Zerbo hit a solo shot in the third; Tim Doig had an RBI double and Stanton an RBI single in the fourth.

Stanton, who is hitting just under .600 for the season, had his third RBI with a sacrifice in the sixth, and Zerbo followed him with an RBI single in that inning.

Farmington's best chance occurred when Tony Luttman, who replaced Pardonnet on the mound and finished the game, doubled and Bob Houchins singled to start the fourth inning.

But Zatkun retired the next three batters with a strikeout, a popout to Zerbo and a flyout to right field.

"We had second and third with nobody out, and our hitters can't do anything," Finn said. "We gave the momentum right back to them."

That was one of our big chances. At several points, we could've got something going and just didn't get the job done. We've struggled with situational hitting."

The Falcons had runners at second and first following consecutive singles by Houchins and Kyle Burcar with two outs in the sixth, but Zatkun pitched out of a jam again by getting the next batter on a flyout to center field.

Doig, Stanton and Nick Vitanis had two hits apiece for Harrison; Houchins and Burcar had the same for Farmington.

"The last two weeks we flattened out in our hitting," Herrington said. "We had big innings but couldn't sustain it; today we sustained our hitting throughout the game."

"I really thought this team had a chance to win the league, but I didn't know the pitching would be as good as it has been."

"Of course, the addition of Drew Stanton — in my estimation he's the best player we've ever had here — made us a very sound team."

cons (20-7) as Jason Robinson clubbed a two-run homer in the first inning and Dan Homing added a solo blast in the second.

Tony Clark contributed a two-run double in the first as the Patriots jumped out to a 6-2 lead after two innings.

Winning pitcher Jim Pietre scattered nine hits in going the distance. He did not walk a batter.

Farmington starter Tony Volpe took the loss. Jeff Fisher went three innings in relief and Preston Picard finished up.

Bob Houchins doubled twice for the Falcons, while Bernie Brown and Chris Chesney each added two hits.

LUTHERAN WESTLAND 9, CLARENCEVILLE 3: Rob Sinclair scattered eight hits Wednesday to give the Warriors the win. Charles Bolander took the loss. Clarenceville scored twice in the first, but Lutheran High answered back with three second and wrped it up with four in the sixth.

one hit, two walks, and pitched out of a jam, when the Wildcats had a runner at third in the fourth.

"The difference in the game was when (Enteminger) came in to pitch," said Villanova coach Jeff Dragich. "As painful as it was to blow a 4-0 lead, he came in and shut us down and that was it."

The winner came in the seventh as Coratti led off with a single, then Rogowski hit a come-backer to Pico. Pico turned to second to get Coratti, but threw the ball into center field as both runners were safe. After a strikeout, Coratti and Rogowski pulled off a double steal during Enteminger's at-bat. Dragich then had Enteminger intentionally walked to load the bases and pulled the infield in.

Haeger then came up and knocked the ball over Pico's head and between second baseman Gerry Dufour and shortstop Aaron Horowitz, scoring Coratti with the winning run.

"I don't know that we did anything differently at this point," said Salter, whose team will play Detroit Renaissance at 3 p.m. on June 5 at the University of Detroit Mercy's Campbell Complex in Operation Friendship.

"We wanted to put the ball in play and make them throw it around."

Villanova scored its first two runs in the first as Haeger walked Bryan Dufour and Horowitz, then Chris Corchie singled them home. The Wildcats scored two more in the second as Pico singled, Chris Botterill walked, then Gerry Dufour singled them home.

CC did get two back in the bottom of the inning when Haeger and Crepeau both walked, then moved to second and third on a passed ball. Mike Wadowski came up and hit a hard grounder to Gerry Dufour, who made a good play to field the ball, but threw wild to first — allowing Haeger and Crepeau to come home.

Pico gave up just six hits in the game, including a double by Enteminger and walked four. Enteminger walked three and allowed just one hit in his stint, while striking out five.

Falcons drop Patriots for loss

Farmington avenged a 5-3 loss to Livonia Franklin on Wednesday with a 9-4 victory Friday in a Western Lakes Activities Association softball playoff game.

Kelsey Guisbert pitched a sharp game for the host Falcons (8-24), allowing five hits and two walks. She had nine strikeouts.

Farmington had 13 hits, including two apiece by Catherine Shaw, Danielle Lewis, Sarah Goetzke, Lindsey Abbott and Randin Brown.

"We played a solid game all the way through," Farmington coach Kristen Harman said, "and Kelsey pitched really well."

"Wednesday we had 10 hits. We only had three more this time, but we got the key hits and scored the runners."

Lewis, Goetzke, Abbott and Brown also had two RBI each. Shaw scored two runs.

SOFTBALL

Nikki Zabkiewicz was the starting pitcher for Franklin; she left in the third inning but returned in the seventh.

Zabkiewicz was 3-for-4 with a double and scored three runs. Amy Sandrick had an RBI double for Patriots (12-16).

HARRISON 9, JOHN GLENN 4: Beth Leeb pitched a three-hitter and just missed a shutout Friday as Farmington Harrison defeated host Westland John Glenn.

Leeb, who didn't walk anybody, helped her cause by going 2-for-4 with two RBI and scoring a run.

Ellen Doughty, Merrill DeRose and Kelly Taylor also had two hits and one RBI apiece. DeRose and Taylor scored one run each, too.

Leeb had a shutout going until two were out in the bottom of the seventh inning. Glenn's Abby Massey doubled and scored on Ruth Kleitka's single.

The Hawks finished 8-10 in WLAA games and are 12-14 overall.

N. FARMINGTON 3, CANTON 0: In a replay of last year's WLAA championship game, the Raiders beat the Chiefs again Friday in a playoff game, although the league title wasn't at stake this year.

North pitcher Beth Danielewicz allowed just three hits and one walk while striking out five.

Staci Russell had two hits, scored a run and had an RBI to lead the Raiders, who are 22-11 overall.

Jasmine King, Alyssa Stanbridge and Emily Jaffe chipped in one hit apiece.

N. FARMINGTON 4, NORTHVILLE 0: Beth Danielewicz pitched a three-hit shutout Wednesday as the Raiders finished 13-5 in the WLAA with a crossover victory. She struck out eight and didn't walk anybody.

North had six hits, including two by Lindsey Teub. Allison Goldberg's two-run single was the big hit of the game.

Jasmine King had an RBI on a fielder's choice. Danielewicz, Staci Russell and Alyssa Stanbridge also had North hits.

FRANKLIN 5, FARMINGTON 3: Winning pitcher Nikki Zabkiewicz had two doubles and three RBI Wednesday as host Livonia Franklin (12-14) downed the Falcons in a Western Lakes crossover at Emerson Middle School.

Zabkiewicz had an RBI double in the fifth and a two-run double to spark a three-run seventh.

Kat Borowski added an RBI single in the third inning to score Jenny Mosier, who singled and stole second base.

Zabkiewicz struck out six, walked two and allowed six hits over seven innings. Losing pitcher Kelsey Guisbert gave up five hits and five walks and struck out five.

Catherine Shaw had a single, double and RBI for Farmington. Amy Paquette added two singles.
