Fish Story

Tanks a lot: Jack Barry donated an aquarium and fish to SENEX.

SENEX clients enjoy new fish tank

BY JONI HUBRED STAFF WRITER

The path to getting a new aquarium for the Farmington Hills Senior Services SENEX Program started a few months ago, as city naturalist Joe Derek was browsing through the Pet Supplies Plus store at 13 1/2 Mile and Orchard Lake roads.

13 1/2 Milė and Orchard Lako reads.
He chatted with Kathy Edwards, who was Pat Supplies Plus' very first employee when Jack Berry started the business 22 years ago. Edwards knows fish and how to care for them, Derek said, so he asked her what the chances might be of getting a new wooden stand for the SENEX aquarium.

"She said, "Here's Jack Berry's phone number. Why don't you give him a call?," Derek remembers.

Berry's response was quick and to the point. Since the program was housed in the William B. Costick Center, which was undergoing renovations, he auggested not only a new stand, but a whole new aquarium.

Derek quite often makes phone calla looking for donations. Ho doesn't always get that kind of response.

"Every now and then you luck out," he said.
For Berry, the donation was

Child Watch volunteers sought

A childwatch volunteer meeting will be 7-7:45 p.m. Monday, June 4, at Beechview Elementary School in the Kimberly Sudivision next to Becchview Swim Club.

The Farmington Hills Police department is looking for parents who would be willing to help a child in trouble by becoming a Child Watch Volunteer. One adult member of the house-hold must be trained in the program. Training takes 45 minutes. After passing a background check on all members of the household 17 or older, a numbered sign is issued and delivered to your home.

Child Watch signs in your neighborhood send the message that all adults are trained to be the "eyes and ears" for the police department. For more information, call Farmington Hills Police, (248) 473-9640.

Registration for this meeting is not necessary.
