Being Satisfied

It seems that so many people in this world are dissatisfied with their lives and have difficulty understanding why things are not better for them. They may not be content with their chosen occupation, where they live or with their family life. These unhappy people are not being fulfilled in this world, and it is difficult for them to understand why they are involved in such troublesome situations. In life, everyone has difficulties and problems to contend with, and if we put our hopes and dreams only on things of this world, we will never be completely satisfied. Things are constantly changing in our lives, and the only thing that remains firm and steadfast in this world is God's love for us. God wants us to be the best that we can be, and to be satisfied and fulfilled in our daily routine. And though this is much easier said than done, the Bible tells us that we should come to the Lord, those who are carrying heavy loads, and He will give us rest.

For He satisfieth the longing soul,
and filleth the hungry soul
with goodness.
K.J.V. Psalm 107:9
