A misdemeanor city charge of abandonment will be filed against a 20-year-old nanny who left a 3-year-old child from Bev-crly Hills locked in a car while she shopped at Old Navy on Orchard Lake Road.

Orchard Lake Road.

A store manager notified police that the child was locked in the car with the windows cracked about an inch. The outside temporature was 89 degrees. Police estimated the child was left in the car 15-30 minutes.

The woman emerged from the store and unlocked the car and store and unlocked the car and was taken in to custody by police. The child was transported by the Farmington Hills Fire Department to Botsford Hospital where ahe was determined to be in good condition.

Farmington Hills Assistant Police Chief Chuck Nebus said the nanny would not be charged with child abuse. *Detectives met with the Oakland County prosecutor, and we mutually met with the Oakland County prosecutor, and we mutually determined that this case doesn't fit the criteria for child abuse. There was no intent and no injury to the child'. Nebus said. He said the child's parents are also in agreement on the charge. The misdemeaner is punishable by up to 90 days in jail and a $500 fine, Nebus said.

jail and a $500 fine, Nebus said.

NARCOTICS ARREST
Farmington Hills Police Officers, working with SONIC and Livonia Police, arrested 44-year-old John Edward Cook of Livonia for possession of 56 grams of crack cocaine. Police entered Cook's Inkster Road home around 9 p.m. Friday.
Cocaine was found in a jewelry box in Cook's bedroom and a smaller amount in a black leather jacket. Some of the cocaine had been placed in small baggies.

coemie nad been piaced in smail baggies.

Officers also seized nine guns in the raid, including two 12-gauge shotguns, a .45-caliber rifle, a .22-caliber single shot, a .46-caliber pistol, a .46-caliber/410 rifle war loaded.

Officers also found $1,200 in cash in a sasult rifle wero loaded.

Officers also found $1,200 in cash in a safe, including eight bills belonging to SONIC from previous purchases from Cook, who is also known as "Violator John." Police also took three scales into evidence, including one triple-beam scale. They confiscated seven Valum pills that were also found in a cigarette wrapper.

An 18-year-old Farmington Hills woman and 16-year-old girl were apprehended by police after a call from loss prevention officers at Kohl's on Grand River. Between them, they took three tank tops, a swimsuit, shorts, and a pair of hip huggers. The total value of the items was $194, according to police reports. The 18 year old was given a citation and released at the scene. The 18 year old was taken into custody and released at the scene. The 16 year old was taken into custody and released at the scene. The 16 year old was taken into custody and released dater to her parents. The incident occurred at 3 p.m. Friday.

ROAD RAGE

A call to police reported that

ROAD RAGE

A call to police reported that an irate driver was fighting with a construction crew at Franklin Road and Ramble. The man was account of the service of the serv gone when officers arrived. The report was made June 15.

report was made June 1b.

LARCENY
A Walled Lake woman reported that someone took a her purse, which contained a wallet, credit cards and other items while she was shopping at Marshall's on Orchard Lake Road.

The theft was reported Friday afternoon.

afternoor

afternoon.

RETAIL PRAUD

A white male in his early 20s fled the CVS drugstore at 22250 Middlebelt with 15 boxes of Tylenol cold medicine in a hand basket. Each box is valued at $4.
A witness in the parking lot failed in his attempted to stop the man. The theft was reported Friday.

CHECK THEFT

The owner of Hi Tech Transmissions on Grand River reported the theft of 80 checks by a person known to him. The owner became aware of the theft after a call from an Ann Arbor sporting goods store where a woman with numerous tattoos cashed one of the checks. The theft was report-ed to police June 16.

RETAIL FRAUD
Two boxes of Allied ratchets valued at $288 each were taken from Pep Boys on Grand River.
The suspect is a man in his 20s. He drove away in a blue Oldsmobile.

bile.

PRINK DRIVING
A routine traffic stop nabbed a 47-year-old Farmington Hills man for driving under the influence. Officers working a stationary radar patrol on 12 Mile stopped the man after he was clocked driving 58 mpb in a 45mph zone.

clocked driving 58 mpn in a 40-mph zone.

According to reports, he had bloodshot eyes and admitted to having been in a bar in Ply-mouth.

mouth.

He failed the field sobriety test administered by officers and was asked to take a Breathalyzer test. The alcohol content regis-tered 0.15 In Michigan, 0.10 is

FARMINGTON HILLS POLICE AND FIRE CALLS

The stop was made at 4:30 p.m. Friday.

THEFT
A platinum Rolex watch valued at $30,000 and $3,500 in cash were reported stolen from a home in the 25400 block of Witherspoon. The owner of the home told police he believed the items were taken while he was in the hospital. There were no signs of forced entry. The man provided officers with the names of two caretakers who work for him. Two maids and several relatives also have keys to the home.

The theft was reported to police June 10.

STOLEN GUN
A 52-year-old resident of the Citation Club Apartments reported to police that a black
.45-caliber Glock semi-automatic pistol was taken from the nightstand in his apartment. The man told officers he had been away on business in New York and discovered the gun missing when he returned. There were no signs of forced entry, and police have no suspects. The theft was reported Friday.

Crittenton Weight Management Center

One success story ...

"I chose the Crittenton Weight Management Center program because it was connected to a local hospital with a very good reputation ... I did everything they asked me to do. This is how I was able to lose my weight." - Roger L. Fox

Call today and see how we can help you! 248-652-5626

CRITTENTON

Quality Care...Close To Home

www.crittenton.com

Premier Money Market Account ONLY $1,000 TO OPEN

Forget about the Joneses. Now you can keep up with the Rockefellers.

Introducing an investment option for those who aren't already in the leisure class (but want to end up there). With the Huntington Premier Money Market Account, you can get the kind of interest rate normally reserved for tycoons. And that rate applies, no matter what your balance. You'll also get the safety of FDIC insured deposits. Plus convenient access to your funds any time you want.

Liquidity. Security. And above all, a great return. It's everything you so richly deserve. To learn more, stop by your local Huntington office today.

Call toll-free 1-877-480-2345 or visit us online at www.huntington.co

"The Annual Promagn Face (API) to the Annual Engineer Shope (Aping Aping Control of the Aping Aping Control of the The Annual Promagnet on 1 (API) to the Aping Aping Aping Control of the The Aping Aping Aping Control of the The Aping Aping

Bringard takes over Tyndale College helm

The William Tyndale College Board of Directors has named Jerry Bringard acting president, replacing Dr. James McHann, who has left to become chairma of a technical institute in Madi-son Heights affiliated with the college.

son Heights unmon-college.

"Jerry is a natural choice to assume leadership of the college until our search committee selects a permanent president," said board chairman Kenneth Moors.

selects a permanent president," said board chairman Kenneth Myers.

The small Christian liberal arts college is headquartered in Farmington Hills on 12 Mile Rd. west of Drake.

"Jerry brings nearly 25 years of personal service on the Tyndale board and more than 50 years of declication to the college through his father's service on the board of directors.

Bringard joined the board of directors in 1977 and served as chairman from 1989-95. His father, Elmer, was named to the board of directors in 1959, serving until 1970. Bringard was named a distinguished professor of business for the college in 1998.

He's retired vice president and general counsel of Ford Motor Credit Co. He began his career at Ford Credit in 1960, was named a vice president in 1987, adding the general counsel tith in 1989. He retired from Ford Credit in 1998. In addition to serving on the college board, Bringard is a member of the Parents Execu-tive Advisory Board of Hillsdale College and an elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Trenton. He holds a bachelor's degree

He holds a bachelor's degree from Denison University, mas-ter's from the University of Detroit and the law degree from Wayne State University.

Detroit and the law degree from Wayne State University.
McHann served as Tyndin president from 1990 and is credited with instituting programs and procedures and recruiting world class personnel to bring the college to a position as a premier Christ-centered non-sectaries, college in southwestern mier Christ-centered non-sectar-ian college in southeastern Michigan. He holds a Ph.D. from the University of Aberdeen (Scot-land) and a master's from the Kellogg Gradunte School of Management at Northwestern University.

CAMPUS PIPELINE

MSU SCHOLAR
Anne Kopleko of Farmington has been awarded a 2001 Alumni Distinguished Scholarship at Michigan State University.
Kopicko is one of 12 students nationwide to receive the scholarship through this competitive scholarship program.

ALBION GRAD

Rebecca M. Naglik graduated summa cum laude from Albion College in May, receiving a bachelor's degree in chemistry. The honor of summa cum laude is given to students who maintain a grade point average of 3.8 or more out of a possible 4.0 throughout their entire college

CLEARY GRADS
Christopher Bannoura and Barbara St. John, both of Farmington Hills, graduated from Cleary College at its June 16 commencement exercises.