"That was something to shoot for right there," Sutter said. And every Tuesday night during the season, the Hornets would meet with the parents to review film of the last game. "Back in the old days, she used to run the projector back and forth before we had video tape," John said. "Her involvement with the parents and the kids was tremendous. She loved the kids as much as I do, and many of them are grown now and are good friends." Because she was involved and knowledgeable about the game, Fran was known to offer her opinion, too, if she thought the coaches had erred. "She knew the game of football better than most women did, and she certainly let John and us know when we screwed up," Sutter said. "Fortunately, there weren't too many of those occasions, but there were times we met the wrath of Fran." When we lost to Fordson in 1984 with a good team, she wouldn't talk to me for two days, because she didn't think I called a very good game," John said. Fran was a professional person, too, and had her own career. She worked in the medical field for 40 years and managed a doctor's office for the last 28 until her retirement in December. John and Fran knew each other since the fourth grade, graduated from Waterford High School together in 1958 and began dating in college. "We ended up getting married," John said. "We had a great life together."

And that life revolved largely around Harrison football. Of the 408 games in which John has coached over four decades, Fran missed only one, when she traveled to Iowa in the late 1970s for an uncle's funeral. Fran, who is also survived by her children, Layne and Leisa (Zell) Zelinski, and a brother, Dr. Jerry Goff, "was full of life and very outgoing," John added. And it was her cheerful nature and friendly disposition that drew people to her and made her instantly likeable. A warm greeting from Fran brightened your day, even on the coldest, gruggest, November afternoon during the playoffs. As many times as I went on the field to interview John after a game, Fran was always there, too.

had three assists while Vigilante had a pair. The Huskies (3-2) got two goals from John Pietila plus one each from B. J. Gaydon and Phil Pietila. Trent Davutava assisted on three of the four goals. Rick Mamon (Canton) started in goal for the Huskies with Travis Miller coming on at 6:47 of the middle period. The Wildcats (2-1) won their first game in 1999, 3-2, when John Helminen scored three times Thursday to help keep the Wildcats winless. The Whalers (2-3) scored four unanswered goals in the second period to take a 7-3 lead into the final period. Helminen had three goals, Rich Storm and Brian Young (Canton) two each goals by James Crank propelled the Wolves past the Warriors, who lost Thursday for the second time in the week. Krikor Arman had two goals while Scott Lutz, Varujan Arman and Dave Datar (Plymouth) scored once each for the Wolves. Lutz, John Slange and Jeremy Mott had three assists apiece for the winners, whose Gabe Villarreal went all the way in goal. Mark Lavender (Farmington Hills) was in the nets for the Warriors (3-2), who got two goals from Joe Morasu (Farmington Hills) and one apiece from Dave Moss (Livonia), Brian Sutherland (Plymouth), Jeremy Majszak (Canton), Eric Twining (Redford) and Jeff Harris (Canton). Morasu had three assists while Moss and Majszak had two each.

Whoston, Shuryan and Sean Smith (Livonia) scored two each and Steve Sharp picked up the other goal. Even goalkeeper Lanny Jardine got into the scoring act, collecting an assist on Shuryan's goal with 34 seconds left in the second period. He had replaced starting goalie John Pickle at 7:17 of the second period. Brian Jardine collected five assists with Nick Jardine and Smith recording four goals. Vigilante had three. Art Baker (Canton) was in goal all the way for the Whalers (1-3), who got a hat trick from Mark A. Pietila. Keith Pietila had the Whalers' other marker. Mike Crowley (Canton) had two assists, Kirk Pietila and Kastamo one each. The Spartans scored the first four goals of the game but found themselves down, 6-5, when Rene Ford scored the last of five unanswered goals with 38 seconds remaining in the second period.

Hornets sweep softball twinbill

The Leo's Coney Island-Farmington Hills Hornets swept a doubleheader from West Bloomfield in the Girls Incredible Fast-Pitch Softball League Thursday. Beth Leeb was the winning pitcher in the first game in relief of Kristin Schrock, who started but left after one inning because of a sore arm. Leeb allowed two runs on five hits in the 8-6 victory, which was shortened to five innings because of a time limit. She struck out three and walked one. The Hornets had four hits, including an RBI triple by Leeb, who also scored a run; Abbey Cleland and Jacqui Smylie had a hit, a walk and a run each. Ellen Doughty added an RBI. Heather Sinawi, who was hit by a pitch four out of six times in the doubleheader, reached base three times that way in the first game and scored two runs. Leo's won the second game, 11-10, in five innings again (time limit) when Doughty hit a two-out, two-run single in the bottom of the fifth. The Hornets (3-1) had seven hits, including two by Leeb, who had another triple, an RBI and a run. Schrock had an RBI single, was hit by a pitch, walked once and scored two runs. Cleland, Smylie and Kelly Yeklin also had one hit and scored a run each, and Courtney Spaulding was hit by a pitch twice and scored two runs. Erin Held pitched all five innings to get the victory.
