WHERE CAN I FIND?

This interactive feature is dedicated to helping readers locate retail merchandise that's difficult to find through reader feedback.

Summer's hot sales also presents the golden chance to jump feet first into the shoe bonanza. Let's face it: a girl can never have enough shoes. Save those extra dollars by finding the right style summer shoe that can easily transition into fall. Look for closed-toe slingbacks, smart loafers and pointed-toe heels in darker colors. Two-tone shoes will continue for fall, so now is the time to purchase a chocolate and mandarin orange slingback, or a sleek pump in Hermès saddle brown.

When hitting the sales racks, the key is to find classic styles in neutral colors. You can never go wrong with cashmere and leather, and finding the right shoe can pull the outfit together. Whatever the item is that you're searching for, the summer sales have never presented a better opportunity to shop smart and save.
