String music to highlight park concert

The Matinee String Quartet will fill Heritage Park with music in the "Stars in the Park" summer concert series, sponsored by the Farmington Hills Special Services Department on Thursday, July 12, at 8 p.m.

Heritage Park is located on Farmington Road, just south of 11 Mile Road. Judith A. Tensile and Ramon Garza founded the Matinee String Quartet in 1989 on the campus of Oakland University. The quartet also features Bruce Rutter and Denise Nowhouse. The program will include a wide variety of both popular and classical pieces from "Phantom of the Opera" to Mozart.

All concerts in the free concert series take place on Thursdays at 8 p.m. in Heritage Park. The series provides a great family evening. Concert-goers are encouraged to bring picnic dinners and lawn chairs.

If you have any questions regarding the "Stars in the Park" series, please call the Farmington Hills Cultural Arts Division at 248-473-1856.

Nine vying for honors

The annual Miss Farmington/Oakland County pageant is slated 7-11 p.m. Wednesday, July 18, at the downtown Farmington Civic Theater.

Nine contestants will vie for the 2001 title and the winner will compete in the Miss Michigan pageant next June.

An afterglow celebration is planned in the parking lot behind Page's Food and Spirits. Music will be provided by Stu and His Crew.

For tickets to the pageant, call Iora Haglund at 661-8179.

Akouri selected to judge pageant

John Akouri of Farmington Hills has been selected to serve as an official judge in this year's Miss Farmington/Oakland County Scholarship Pageant, the regional preliminary to the national Miss America Pageant.

Akouri, press secretary to U.S. Rep. Joe Knollenberg, will join the roster of other judges in crowning this year's pageant queen, who will go on to compete for the title of Miss Michigan.

The winner of Miss Farmington/Oakland County will be chosen from among nine contestants.

"I am truly pleased to have been asked by the local scholarship pageant's board of directors to serve as a judge for this affair," said Akouri. "This pageant has long sought to promote the talent, beauty and fashion our area has to offer while both preparing and educating young women for their future. I am happy in playing a role to that end."

He's on the radio

Farmington psychic Rachel Rains has joined the new Jim Harper and the Magic Morning Show (105.1 FM) as a regular featured guest each Monday morning.

Rains, who has been running seminars, classes and doing psychic readings for 16 years, debuted on the premiere Harper-WMGC radio show on July 2.
