ers duel with Darga coming out the winner, 3-2. He got stronger as the game went on and was in control after the fourth inning.

Wingert followed with a single to kneck in the winning run. Wingert and Vitanis led the offense with two hits each.
Vitanis was the team's leading litter in the tournament with a .500 average; Petry hit .455, Zerbo.435 and Rodriguez.417.
The Cobra pitchers had a collective ERA of 1.14. The NFWB roster also includes Sam Grossman and Bryan Smith.
"Michigan, historically, has not been very successful in the NABF World Series, but we hope to change that this year," Petry said.
The Cobras played the winner of the Dayton (Chio) regional in their first game earlier today. Their second game is 6 p.m. Friday at Northville High School. The game was tied going into the seventh inning when Rodriguez slashed a two-out dou-ble down the left-field line.

DELIVER YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER EARN MONEY. WIN PRIZES.

The young people you see here are Observer & Eccentric carriers. They're choosing some great prizes for doing a good job delivering their hometown newspaper every Sunday morning and Thursday afternoon.

It takes them only a few hours twice each week and throughout the year they have a lot of chances to win--- and earn--- some grand prizes.

We're looking for more young people to join our great carrier team.
So, moms and dads, if you have a son or daughter 10 years or older, who would like a route, just call one of our numbers or fill in the coupon and mail it to:

OBSERVER NEWSPAPER

36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, Mt 48150 Your child will learn responsibility, how to manage records, how to meet the public and a number of basic business skills-but don't tell your child this, talk about the cool prizes and let the character-building take care of itself.

And, if you would like to get out of the house for a few hours each week and join our growing adult carrier force, we'd welcome your call

Either way, an Observer or Eccentric carrier route can be a fun lob at any age.
