

Pro bowlers conduct clinics

AL HARRISON

Here is a window of opportunity for any and all bowlers who want to start the new season on the right foot. Aleta Sill and Michelle Mullin are going to hold several one-day clinics at different locales to get you or your friends better prepared to start the season right and to develop your bowling skills to the next level within your own ability.

Sill, as most already know, is the first woman bowler to top $1,000,000 in career earnings. She is a member of the Eltonite Pro Advisory Staff, and she has coached a lot of bowlers to where they have vastly improved their games.

Mullin is also a PWBA champion with four national titles and has now moved to this area as a resident. She has great credentials, also.

Michelle is a former Team USA coach and is one of only 22 in the world to be certified at the gold level.

Personally, I think Aleta and Michelle are also the prettiest bowlers on the ladies pro tour. The first session will take place Saturday, Aug. 18, at Novi Bowl, located on Novi Road between Eight and Nine Mile roads.

The next one will take place the following day, Aug. 19, at Drake's Lanes in Farmington Hills on Grand River near Drake Road.

And for those who cannot make either of those dates, the next opportunity will be Aug. 25 or 26 at Sterling Lanes in Sterling Heights.

Each clinic features video analysis and on-line coaching, a sure way to see yourself bowl and learn how to improve.

There is a segment dedicated entirely to effective spare shooting. This is the key element to higher scores.

The Practice Plan is to enable you to get the most out of your practice opportunities, whether in pre-game or leisure time practice.

Each session begins at 8:30 a.m. and ends around 4 p.m. The cost per session is $109 per person; better yet, bring a friend for $59 each.

Class size is limited to the first 16 bowlers, so get your reservations in early. Call (313) 274-1227 to enroll.

Thirty-six hours and two minutes. The Guinness Book of World Records lists this figure as the longest time for anyone to have performed continuous bowling.

Now is your chance to try to beat that record and help raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association at the same time.

The Loyal Order of Moose-Taylor Chapter is planning this event, which will take place over 48 hours at Ford Lanes in Dearborn Heights starting at 7 p.m. Friday, Aug. 10.

Next time you go Moose hunting, remember they do some very good things.

Ford Lanes is an active member of the Bowling Centers of Michigan and is located on Van Born East of Telegraph Road.

Many businesses have donated gifts of raffle items and money for the MDA. Participants will be mostly Moose Lodge members, but a limited number of spots have been held open for non-members to partake as well.

Each participant is required to obtain pledges to bowl. Ford Lanes will be open for business around the clock that weekend and will donate the use of the lanes and coffee for the participants.

The goal is to have someone break 40 hours of continuous bowling. For further details call Bob Bull of Loyal Order of Moose at (313) 291-1398 at the lodge or (313) 336-6433 at his home or Marc Smoltz of Ford Lanes at (313) 292-1700.
