

Scholarship winner

Top student: The Farmington Elks Lodge recently helped Christal Phillips of Grosse Pointe prepare for her future by making a good education at the University of Michigan a little easier to pay for. At a recognition and award dinner, Phillips received a check for $500 as the top female student from the area. In addition to being a top student, Phillips is a volunteer at Children's Hospital and plays the violin in the Detroit Symphony Civic Orchestra. A graduate of Liggett High School in Grosse Pointe Woods, she plans to study English and biology at the University of Michigan in the fall. Pictured left to right: John Shalhoub, Exalted Ruler of the Farmington Elks Lodge, Christal Phillips and Dick Mullen, scholarship chairman and past Exalted Ruler of the Farmington Lodge.

OC offers new-parent classes

The Oakland County Health Division plans six weekly sessions to help parents-to-be prepare for the birth of a baby. Classes, taught by public health nurses, are held 7-9 p.m. Wednesdays, beginning Aug. 16, at the Oakland County Health Division, 27725 Greenfield, Southfield.

Cost is $25. For more information or to enroll, call (248) 858-0003 or (888) 360-0800, Ext. 80003.
