

RAI workers help out

The crew: Employees of RAI, Inc., a Farmington Hills-based relocation consulting firm, lent a helping hand to residents of the Grandmont-Rosedale Development in Detroit, volunteering one Saturday morning in July with clean up activities in their neighborhood. They assisted neighborhood residents by filling with dirt an area alongside a walking trail at Ramsay Park. The trail had been recently constructed with donated funds, but there wasn't sufficient money to repair some of the ground around it. Other RAI employees painted over graffiti in the neighborhood. Pictured from left are RAI employees and Grandmont-Rosedale residents: Marjorie Van Hoy, Detroit; Charlie Dwight, Detroit; Jessica Feldman, Ferndale; Ilene Chait, co-owner of RAI and a resident of West Bloomfield; Lee Chang, Novi (back row); Amber Mott, Farmington Hills; Melanie Anderson, Howell; Alicia Collins, Novi (front row); Tom Godderis, Detroit (back row); Ann Jackson, Detroit; Joe Williams, Detroit (back row); Rick Fernandez, Troy; Laura Carter, Troy; Terry Dunham, Detroit (back row); Melissa Lamb, Walled Lake; and Pam Weinstein, Detroit.
