UPDATED WEB SITE

The Jewish Community Center of Metropolitan Detroit has upgraded and updated its Web site, www.jccdet.org

The Web site contains information about facilities, programs and services at both JCC locations: the D. Dan and Betty Kahn building on the Eugene and Marcia Applebaum campus in West Bloomfield and the Jimmy Prentiss Morris building on the A. Alfred Taubman campus in Oak Park.

The site is divided into interest areas to facilitate quick navigation and a search engine is available. Users can click on tabs to find information about Jewish education, cultural arts, travel, child care and the JCC summer camps.

Those who go to the sites can learn about special needs services, older adult programs and activities for new Americans by clicking the specialty programs tab.

For more information regarding the Web site, contact JCC marketing director Heidi Press at (248) 432-5409.

TRIATHLON FOR HOPE

A Triathlon for Hope to raise money for breast cancer research will be held on the JCC West Bloomfield campus Sunday, Oct. 14. Session I will be held from 9:10-10:30 a.m. and session II from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. It will include a half-hour run, half-hour swim and half-hour spin class. Proceeds will go to City of Hope National Medical Center and Beckman Research Institute. A minimum donation of $40 is required to participate in the event.

Check-in is at 8:30 a.m. at the Edward and Shirley Rosenberg Recreation complex for session I and at 11 a.m. for session II. Participation is limited to 60. Registration deadline is Oct. 7. Call Marni Stone at the JCC HealthClub (248) 432-5427 or Krysta Spann Ivey at City of Hope, (800) 732-7170.

FASHION GAMES FUND-RAISER

Tickets are still available for the Fashion Games, a fund-raiser to benefit the West Bloomfield Community Farm Games. It will take place at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 5, at Neiman Marcus in the Somerset Collection South in Troy. The Fame Games give adults and children with special needs the opportunity to showcase their athletic abilities. The games will take place at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 9, on the West Bloomfield campus of the JCC.

During the fashion event, jewelry designer Steven Lagos will show his designs and donate five percent of sales to the Fame Games. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served. Valet parking will be available. Tickets are $60 per person. For ticket information, call Nancie Furgang, JCC special needs director, at (248) 432-5555.

FALL CLASS REGISTRATION

There's a new schedule of classes and activities at both JCC locations this fall. Non-members may register beginning today, Aug. 30. Classes begin the week of Sept. 3.

For young children, the JCC offers age-appropriate sports, including swimming, in-line skating, soccer, T-ball, kindergames, arts/crafts, music and Spanish.

Elementary age kids can opt from swimming, martial arts, basketball, baseball, soccer, flag football, in-line hockey, gymnastics. Older youth have swimming, rollerblading, in-line hockey, basketball training, tai chi and karate to choose from.

For adults, there's swimming, aikido, tai chi, CFB Feldenkrais, in-line hockey, step classes, aerobics, strength training, Pilates, yoga, spinning and more. The aquatics program offers open swimming, lessons and competitive swimming. Senior adults can find health and fitness classes geared to their abilities. For people with special needs, the JCC offers a variety of programs including art, kayaking, music, dance and martial arts.
